Home Delivered Meals

Tom and Val Pankonen are looking to recruit volunteers from Our Lady Queen of Heaven parish to sponsor drivers for an Aspirus Riverview Hospital Home Delivered Meals route one week per month. Delivering hot, nutritious meals to some of our most vulnerable can be a very rewarding experience as it provides us with the opportunity to put our faith in action by serving others. For those interested in giving about an hour of their time once per month (or more as desired), please contact the parish office with your name, address and phone number at (715) 423-1251. A brief orientation to the Aspirus Home Delivered Meals program will be arranged along with completions of some simple paper work. Many thanks for your consideration. This is a wonderful opportunity to help our community.

PASTORAL THOUGHTS...

Fr. Levi Schmitt
Our Lady Queen of Heaven
Easter Sunday
April 17, 2022

Is Jesus alive today? This is a simple question. The answer to it has far-reaching consequences into the whole of our lives.

Tens of millions of Christians, around the globe, gather today to sing "Alleluia! He is Risen!" The Resurrection, the central event in Christianity, is celebrated this Easter day. But how do we celebrate it? Do we celebrate Jesus Christ the same way we celebrate others?

There are many figures of the past we may find "inspirational." Mahatma Ghandi, Helen Keller or Mr. Rogers might come to mind, for instance. Their struggles, their ideals, their character can challenge us. But do they themselves challenge us? No! Because—and it is not insensitive but factual to say—they are dead, regardless of whether their memories "live on" or not. We come to a crossroads, then. We can accept Jesus as simply another inspirational figure of the past, in which case this Easter morning is a hollow event—Jesus is left in His grave. Or, if we truly accept that Jesus has risen, then our lives are shaken to their very core.

St. Paul, in his letter to the Colossians, tells us: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above. We look to what is above because with Christ's rising the simple time-table of the human life is forever changed. The plot of our story is no longer "she was born . . . and she died"; "he was born . . . and he died." Now the story reaches past the "and died" part into eternity. But which part do we live for? The ". . ." part of our stories? Or the "after death" plot twist? Seek! Paul calls us to action. Seek! Seek what is above!

At the core of this "seeking" is a searching out for the person of Jesus Christ. If Jesus lives, then He lives today. Our "now" is His "now." To meet Him, we must allow Him to interrupt, to break into our time's simple rhythm. If we were to survey Christians across two-thousand years, what concrete features would they all have in common? Many things could be said, but one undeniable feature would be their living of "The Lord's Day." This day, dedicated to finding rest with the Lord after His creation of the world, is made freshly Sacred by the Resurrection's re-creation. In it's very name there is a profound statement. He has zoned off a portion of our lives as His own. One of our days is not ours, but His. This is the time chosen by God for us to find Him. This the day Jesus Christ has designated for when He will answer our search. Are you seeking the Risen Lord Jesus? You will find Him on the day He has named.
