PASTORAL THOUGHTS...

And I heard the voice of the Lord saying;
"Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?"

This is a beautiful question from Isaiah 6:8. Diakonia means service, a sign that indelibly, permanently impressing on the soul, the one ordained to Christ, through the imposition of hands, who himself made himself the Deacon, or servant of all. The Deacon is called to proclaim the Scriptures, instruct the people through homilies.

The Deacon administers baptism, distribution of the Eucharist, assisting and blessing of marriages, the administration and blessing of sacramentals. The Deacons main role is to be that bridge between the Clergy and the Laity, since he comes from the laity and ordained to the clergy, to dedication of works of charity and assistance.

So I am writing this to encourage men to listen, listen for the voice of the Lord, calling you to service as a Deacon. You will not see your name on a billboard, or an announcement in the newspaper calling you to this ministry, but there is the voice of the Lord that will come to you, you just have to listen.

Of course it is not for everyone, and God will call those he wills. The first thing you must get past is the feeling of unworthiness, you are, so you just move on. If you feel the call, even if that call is someone else telling you, that you would make a good Deacon, at least contemplate this message, and then take it to prayer. Yes, it is a five-year formation program, and if you are married, you will have to have your wife's total backing on this call. You travel this word together, and like I always said; "We may be the bridge from laity to clergy, but the wife is the lights on that bridge."

If you have questions about the program, are interested in making contact with the Diocese, or other information about the formation program, please feel free to stop me and let us just sit and talk about this beautiful ministry, a ministry of service and charity.

Then I said; "Here am I! Send me." (Isaiah 6:8)

Deacon Tom Anderson

ASSUMPTION CATHOLIC SCHOOLS NEWS

Almighty God, You have given my kids all the talents, abilities, and spiritual gifts they need to follow Your plan for their lives. Lord, help them use those gifts to serve You first and others second, so that Your will is accomplished in their lives. Lord, fill their lives with trusted teachers and advisers who can lead them toward You and Your promises. Help them turn to you as they learn and grow so they can lead fruitful and prosperous lives. Amen.

Special Request-Students Needed

Thank you to all who have registered your kindergartener already. If you are anxious for your child to be taught in a classroom that is soaked with literacy and God's love, please contact our enrollment office at 715/422-0901 or kmeinel@assumptioncatholicschools.org

Registration is Still Open to All Area Children

Registration is still open at all of our Catholic schools in the area. I know, as parents, making the decision to give the opportunity of a lifetime to your child takes much thought. Assumption Catholic Schools is here for you. Your support for and participation in Catholic Education is appreciated. We will do all we can to get you what you need.

Greetings from the Social Justice Committee.

Easter Joy to all of you. Thank you so much for your generosity during the Lenten Collections. Our parish is so fortunate to have so many giving, caring individuals. During Lent, we made weekly trips to the food pantry (SWEPS) with food, hygiene items, diapers and elder care items. We made 3 trips to First Choice Pregnancy Care on 8th Street to stock up their infant pantry with baby things. We shared lap blankets and shawls from the knitting group with both the Wisconsin Rapids Health Services (Atrium) and to Edgewater Haven nursing homes to brighten the days of people who may be alone.

We took items to the Family Center to help with the needs of families seeking shelter. Through your generosity we made donations to the Shepherd's Loft with infant clothing, used eye glasses and medication bottles that they will send to Zambia. We also were able to donate cleaning supplies to the South Wood County Humane Society. What a wonderful way to do the Lord's work. Thank you for your compassion and generosity in helping to make the world a better place. God's blessings to you all.

One last thing is that the food pantry (SWEPS) will be moving the last week in April to the 25th and West Grand Avenue location.
