Greetings from the Social Justice Committee.

Thank you for your generosity to Father Valentine and the Mission Appeal. We were able to send approximately $5171 to Father Valentine. It will be split between the seminarians where Father Valentine works, and our sister parish in that Diocese. Usually the sister parish collection is done in June and December. Because of the mission appeal, we will not be holding the June sister parish collection. It will resume again in December for the elderly of our sister parish. Thank you for sharing your gifts. God's Blessings to you.

On another note: Have you heard about Stockboxes? The USDA, The South Wood County (SWC) Hunger Coalition, and the local United Way are sponsoring Stockboxes. It is a box full of food available to any person in SWC who is 60 years or older, and has an income of $1473 or less each month. The boxes are available once each month, and usually contain juice, cereal, canned fruits and vegetables, canned meats and soups, peanut butter, rice, pasta and cheese. Please contact the United Way if this can be useful to you. You can call 877-947-2211, or call 2-1-1. If you qualify and transportation is the problem, please contact Mary at 715-424-4670 and possibly a committee member could pick up and help deliver the food.

PASTORAL THOUGHTS...

Juliana of Liège was a religious sister of the early 13th century. At one time in her prayer, she had a vision of the Church in all its beauty depicted as a full moon. There was one spot, however, a dark shadow, that prevented this moon from showing its full light. She understood that this spot was a feast, a solemnity that was missing from the Church's calendar. Inspired by this encounter and charged by her own deep love of the Blessed Sacrament she worked and prayed for the establishment of the Feast of Corpus Christi.

It was Pope Urban IV who officially placed the celebration of the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ into the Church's calendar. His Transiturus, the official document in which he did so, is worthwhile for us to consider as we enter into this feast ourselves:

As he was about to ascend into heaven, he [Jesus] said to the Apostles and their helpers, I will be with you all days even unto the consummation of the world. He comforted them with a gracious promise that he would remain and would be with them even by his corporeal presence. Therefore he gave himself as nourishment, so that, since man fell by means of the food of the death-giving tree; man is raised up by means of the food of the life-giving tree. Eating wounded us, and eating healed us. Thus the Savior says, My Flesh is real food. This bread is taken but truly not consumed, because it is not transformed into the eater. Rather, if it is worthily received, the recipient is conformed to it.

Moreover we know that...it was divinely revealed to certain Catholics [such as St. Juliana] that a feast of this kind should be celebrated generally throughout the Church. Therefore, to strengthen and exalt the Catholic Faith, we decree that, besides the daily memory that the Church makes of this Sacrament, there be celebrated a more solemn and special annual memorial. Then let the hearts and mouths of all break forth in hymns of saving joy; then let faith sing, hope dance, charity exult, devotion applaud, the choir be jubilant, and purity delight. Then let each one with willing spirit and prompt will come together, laudably fulfilling his duties, celebrating the Solemnity of so great a Feast.

The Pope's challenge for us is a good one. If we truly believe that the Holy Eucharist is the living presence of our God, then there should be no limit to the love, joy and excitement that we bring to this feast.
