MARY HAS CHOSEN THE BETTER PART!

The gospel reading, for the 16th Week in Ordinary Time, tells the story of Martha inviting Jesus to dine at her home. Martha's sister Mary and brother Lazarus also share the home with her. Martha is making preparations for the meal, while Mary, we hear, is at the feet of Jesus listening to his every word. Martha, in her running around preparing for a meal, is upset that Martha has not lent a hand, and goes to her guest, Jesus, to ask him to tell Mary to help her. Jesus lovingly says; "Martha, Martha," and then proceeds to tell Martha not to be so anxious, to busy, and then tells her that Mary, her sister has chosen the better part.

We all can find room in that story to empathize with Martha, working to prepare a meal for her special guest. That is where Jesus is telling all of us that we must not become distracted with life, that we forget to welcome him into our home. Martha is so worried about the meal, that she forgot about her guest. Jesus loved Martha and Mary and does not rebuke Martha, but lovingly reminds her that he wants to dine with them, but not at the cost of preparations that would keep them from sharing that friendship, by being with them, listening to what each has to say.

As I stated in my homily last Sunday, going through formation we were always told that our priorities in life, as a Deacon, must be faith, family and then deaconate, and in that order. As a Deacon we are called to be the bridge between the clergy and the laity, for we have our feet in both worlds. Yet, I always said that our wives are the light on that bridge in our ministry. We know many times life gets in the way and we find ourselves out of balance, very much like Martha in our reading, and when it happens in my life, my loving wife will give me, out of love, a gentle reminder.

The Church needs both Martha's and Mary's, but in proper balance. Where we welcome Jesus first into our lives every day, listening to him in order that we can do his will in our ministry, our discipleship in our lives. Saint Mother Teresa was asked why she prays every morning before she goes out to the streets to care for the sick and dying. She simply stated that she needs to pray, to talk to Jesus, so that he can help her as she goes out to care for the sick and dying.

We all need to look at our own lives, are we so busy that we forget about the one who wants to dine with us? As we pray each day, even in our busy lives, we too will hear Jesus say; "You have chosen the better part."

~Deacon Tom
