WHAT CHRISTMAS IS ALL ABOUT-MAKING ROOM FOR JESUS IN OUR HEARTS

This is a beautiful Christmas Story that was part of a homily a couple years ago-it is so worth retelling.

The story is about a local school that would be holding their annual production of the Nativity play, and also about Wally, who was nine years old at the time and in second grade, instead of fourth grade, due to the fact that he had challenges that made it difficult for him to keep up with the other children. Wally was that type of kid, bigger than the other kids, but well-liked. Wally was very excited to be part of the Christmas play that year, for he was able to play the innkeeper. The play's director liked Wally and wanted him to be able to be a part of the play and yet be able to remember his lines, so with Wally playing the innkeeper, she would be able to stand behind the door of the set and prompt him if necessary.

On the night of the Nativity play, everything was going along just as rehearsed, when it came time for Joseph to appear at the Inn. Joseph slowly and tenderly guided Mary to the door of the Inn, knocked on the door and it was then that Wally appeared saying; "What do you want?" "We seek lodging," Joseph said, and Wally right on cue said; "Seek it elsewhere, the Inn is filled."

Joseph spoke again; "Sir, we have asked everywhere in vain, we have come far and are very tired, and again Wally hit his cue, and sternly said; "There is no room in this Inn for you."

Joseph then said; "Please, this is my wife Mary, who is heavy with child, and needs a place to rest, there must be some small corner for her, please, she is so tired."

This time there was silence, and the prompter had to tell Wally to say the words; "be gone there is no room." Wally was quick to repeat it; "Be gone there is no room."

It was then that Joseph on cue placed his arm around Mary and with her head on Joseph's shoulder, the two of them started to move away. It was then that people began to notice that Wally had not gone back into the Inn, but instead was watching, now with a distant look on his face. Those present saw his mouth open and his eyes full of tears, and it was then that the Nativity Story, this pageant would be different from the others, for it was then that Wally called out to Joseph; "DON'T GO JOSEPH, BRING MARY BACK, and then his face grew into a bright smile when he said, "YOU CAN HAVE MY ROOM."

What Christmas is all about, seeing Christ in others, making room for Him, in our hearts. Merry Christmas. Deacon Tom

The preparations for Christmas include buying or making gifts for those whom we love. You can give no better gift than the gift that God has given to us: His Son, Jesus.

Invite someone who is not Catholic to attend Mass with you at Christmas. For information about RCIA/RCIC, contact Rebecca at reoffice@our-lady.org

Spiritus Ministries.

SPIRITUS missionaries are young adults who give nine months of service to ignite the faith of our Catholic youth. They will be here this weekend to share how they are inspiring the youth of our parish and parishes throughout mostly Wisconsin but also in other states. After their brief witness, they will invite parishioners to partner with their missionary efforts through prayer and financial support. We hope you will join in this vital mission of the Church.

"KEEP THEM WARM" TREE

Our Lady Queen of Heaven Council of Catholic Women (CCW) is so grateful of our Parish family's continued support of the annual "Keep Them Warm" tree. Many area families had a warmer Christmas thanks to your thoughtfulness and generosity. We also give you our heartfelt thanks to those who offered their prayers for the less fortunate.
