Right of Christian Initiation (RCIA/RCIC)

Many people have said that what drew them to the Catholic Church was the Eucharist. As we reflect on recognizing Jesus in the Breaking of the Bread, think for a moment whether there is someone you could invite to Mass and to explore what else the Catholic faith might hold for them. For information, contact Rebecca at reoffice@our-lady.org.

PASTORAL THOUGHTS...

Happy Easter everybody! Allow me to introduce you once again to the beauty, the wonder, the glory, and the significance of Easter. It is a time of great joy because God does for us what no one else can do for us and that is to offer us an abundant, true, fantastic, and fulfilling life. The life that Jesus brings to us in his Resurrection is one of the fundamental mysteries and elements of our Catholic faith. The Resurrection of Jesus brings us to understand that God means what He says He means: "I have come so that they may have life, and have it more abundantly" (John 10:10) and this is a beautiful element of our faith: living with Christ and understanding His presence among us.

The Eucharist is the fundamental way in which we come to know and understand Jesus Christ: truly present and with us today. We can turn to Jesus for hope in times of crisis. We all know crisis. We all know various times when our lives have been shaken and we need to have strength, the strength that only Jesus can bring; the strength that Jesus' Resurrection can make certain in our lives.

We are often told that we are an "Easter people" called to spread the Good News. This is true. We are called to go out into the world and help people to understand that we believe that Jesus Christ is risen from the dead. This is a major event in the life of humanity and a major event in the life of grace in the universe. God brings us Himself. He comes to us in a way of understanding Him that is beyond belief, beyond expectation. How could we ever have even dreamed of asking that God would come among us, would suffer and die for us, and how would we ever, ever dream that He would not stay dead? That He has come among us and He is alive: alive for each of us right now, just as we need Him, whenever we need Him, especially in the Eucharist: the bread of life, the source and the substance of our way of coming to know Christ and experiencing God's grace for us.

My dear brothers and sisters, please consider how much Jesus loves you. Please consider how much Jesus cares about what goes on in your life and to know the great gift of God's presence as you share that gift with one another, as you offer goodness, truth, and faith. This is the goodness of Easter. Live! Live strong, live happy, and be ready to go to Heaven when Jesus wants to see you alive for ever in His kingdom. Happy Easter everybody!
