May is the Month of Mary

It is a long-standing tradition to crown the statue of Mary during May - a custom known as May Crowning. Often, the crown is made of beautiful blossoms representing Mary's beauty and virtue. It also reminds the faithful to strive to imitate our Blessed Mother's virtue.

On May 20 & 21, we will be crowning Mary at the 4:00 pm, 7:30 am, and 10:00 am Mass.

How can you honor the Blessed Mother in a particular way this month at home?

Crown Your Mary Statue - Make a crown of flowers for your Mary Statue and adorn your indoor and outdoor Mary statues with flowers. If you don't have a Mary statue, now would be an excellent time to get one.

Pray the Memorare - Challenge yourself to pray the Memorare daily. The Memorare is a Catholic prayer seeking the intercession and help of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Mary is the Mother of Jesus and the Spiritual Mother of us. We can turn to Mary and tell her about our problems. She will understand.

Christian Initiation (RCIA)

As our Blessed Mother brings us to her Son Jesus, it is our task also to bring others to the Lord. Is there someone you can invite to explore the Catholic faith - someone unbaptized, or baptized in a non-Catholic Christian tradition? Perhaps you know a Catholic adult interested in being confirmed. Please contact Rebecca at rzalar@our-lady.org or call the parish office at 715-423-1251.

Prayer: A Surge of the Heart

Did you know that May 4 is the National Day of Prayer? Finding time to pray can be difficult. Modern life is very busy with so many distractions at every turn, and there's always another job to be done. This inspiring presentation challenges us to make more time for God in our lives and highlights the importance of an ever-deepening life of prayer.

Symbolon Session 6: The Paschal Mystery: Jesus' Death & Resurrection

"The Paschal Mystery: is a phrase we hear and use in the Mass and sacramental rites, but do we understand what it means in the greater story of Salvation.

The Wild Goose with Fr. Dave Pivonka

As we celebrate Pentecost on May 28, deepen your relationship with the Holy Spirit in this fourteen part series. The Wild Goose series will help you experience a deeper relationship with the Person of the Holy Spirit, and as you come to experience God's presence and power this very same Spirit will transform you and bring you freedom.

PASTORAL THOUGHTS...

Storytelling Beauty

In my college years, during a rather boring business leadership presentation, I learned an unexpected lesson. The presenter had nearly lulled everyone to sleep with his lecture when suddenly he said, "For example, this one time I..." Just then, the entire room simultaneously raised their drooping heads and focused their eager attention upon that once-boring lecturer. He had suddenly, in a moment, transformed from an irrelevancy in the room to a magnet of interest. The reason for the sudden interest change is simple: he was storytelling, and we are made for stories. Humans have always enjoyed this primal tendency to retell stories; we crave them and cannot have our fill of them. In that moment, it suddenly made sense that our ancient ancestors gathered around fires not merely for warmth, and that children never tire of asking grandpa for stories. In that unexpected moment of storytelling from that boring lecturer, I finally saw that storytelling is essential to effective communication.

Now think of our role as Christians. How exactly do we preach the gospel? It is storytelling. We do what God did, who made himself incarnate; we must make God not an abstract idea, but something visible and concrete. In this way, we are called to be sacramental, like the sacraments which hold God's invisible realities in visible signs. So tell the greatest story there is, namely the story of salvation. Tell others about how you fit into that story and how God has tied up the salvation of the world with your vocation.

If Christianity is not an adventurous and exciting story for us, then we have not opened our eyes. God is narrating a great story, and we are the characters. He constantly beckons us to himself, and he ceaselessly invites us to sacrificial heroism. Tell others about how he invited you, how you responded. Tell them how Jesus is saving you everyday, and how you rely upon him for strength. Then tell them about the profound story you live now.

He lives,
Fr. Weller

ASSUMPTION CATHOLIC SCHOOLS NEWS

As we are winding down our school year, students are scurrying to get as much learning done as they can. This is our last week of school. We pray for all parishioners each day for their support and confidence as we grow to be leaders in our community and beyond. It's wonderful to see the students who represent the character traits their parents have shown them. We journey through this path together as a community.

SVDP is looking for the perfect person to manage our school library. Do you have a love for books, for children, and some great organizational skills? We are the place for you. Please contact Pam Fochs at 715.422.0960 or pfochs@assumptioncatholicschools.org to find out more.

Thank you to Lori Buntrock, Liz Erdmann, Lauri Zalewski, Kari Reinke, and Emma Grygleski for your time and passion with us. We wish you much love and prosperity as you go onto your next season with your families.
