Christian initiation (RCIA)

With the gift of Jesus' Precious Blood on the Cross and in the Eucharist, let us reflect on the freedom given to us through our Baptism into Him - to be heirs of the promise and liberated from sin. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is how persons become "citizens of the Kingdom" through Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. Inquiry meetings are ongoing. For more information, please get in touch with Rebecca at rzalar@our-lady.org or call the parish office.

What's on Formed.org for July?

Two Views of Freedom- Dr. Edward Sri illustrates two competing views of freedom with a helpful analogy.

Free for What? - Dr. Edward Sri addresses the modern notion of freedom, a "freedom of indifference" with respect to what one chooses.

The Spiritual Exercise of St. Ignatius by Saint Ignatius of Loyola - These Spiritual Exercises were written by Ignatius of Loyola, a theologian, priest, and founder of the Society of Jesus, in the sixteenth century. They are Catholic prayers, reflections, meditations, mental exercises, and directions designed to be read and carried out over 28 to 30 days. These exercises are for Catholics and non-Catholics alike and grew out of Ignatius's desire to seek God's will and follow Christ no matter the cost. Ignatius intended that the exercises would help others to discern God's will and to set the world on fire for Christ!

The Eucharist is called the Breaking of Bread

At the Last Supper, Jesus gave thanks, then blessed and broke the bread and gave it to the Apostles. Jesus repeated this action on the day of His Resurrection as He shared a meal with the disciples in Emmaus. The disciples had left Jerusalem, believing that Jesus was dead. As Jesus walked with the disciples to Emmaus, they did not recognize Him. It was in the "breaking of the bread" that He opened their eyes to recognize Him as the risen Lord. This transfigured Bread and Wine – the Eucharist – is the Gift of Himself to them, and now to us. Let's pray this right now and every day this week: Jesus, please grant me the grace to recognize You in the Holy Eucharist – please reveal this reality to my heart! This week, read the passage of the disciples recognizing Jesus in "the breaking of the bread" in Luke 24:13-35.

What does your future hold? When we are young, we look towards the future and wonder what's in store. Perhaps there are dreams of accomplishing great things, helping others, or being able to change the world. Well, there is a vocational calling that can provide the opportunity to do all of that and so much more: the priesthood! Consider the Lord's call to the priesthood, a calling that gives young men the opportunity to be part of something greater, the Church. It provides an opportunity to be part of God's healing mission, a mission to save souls and bring people into deeper relationship with Him. If you or someone you know is interested in discovering this call, please contact me at: Fr. Nate Kuhn, Director of Vocational Recruitment for the Diocese of La Crosse, 3710 East Ave. S. PO Box 4004, La Crosse, WI 54602; or by phone at: 608.791.2667. God bless you!

PASTORAL THOUGHTS...

This weekend I am celebrating my tenth anniversary of ordination to the priesthood. My actual anniversary is on June 22 but this weekend worked out better to celebrate at and after the Sunday 10:00 AM Mass. Like most people celebrating anniversaries, I have been asked if it seems like ten years. The response will be familiar to many: some days it seems like a lot less and some days it seems like a lot more!

I was struck when I saw my previous assignments typed out in the program for this Sunday's Mass: I've served as a priest in three deaneries of the diocese, having grown up in a fourth and served as a seminarian in a fifth. My time studying canon law in Washington, DC seems like yesterday and yet I completed the program in 2019. Even here at OLQH, I am starting my third year as pastor. Time flies, as they say!

Our own plans never really turn out the way we expect them to. We can plan and organize and devise and, in the end, it's God's plan that happens. I am reminded of Father Robert Letona's ordination to the diaconate that took place here at Our Lady Queen of Heaven in May of 2009. There is a photo of the then-Deacon Letona and me (as a seminarian) outside of the parish office in the Gathering Space. Little did I know then that 12 years later I would be named pastor of the parish. I felt God's humor when Bishop Callahan called to tell me I was assigned to OLQH and remembered that Mass all those years prior.

In all of this, I believe the lesson learned is that God is in control. It's not an easy lesson to learn. We want to be in control. Yet, when we try to plan, it usually doesn't work out. I am reminded of a line from a Robert Burns poem: "the best laid plans of mice and men often go awry." In my ten years of priesthood, I certainly have learned to expect the unexpected and to trust in Divine Providence, as difficult as that is sometimes. Nonetheless, it's a lesson for all Christians to learn.

I am hopeful for the next ten years. Who knows what the future will bring. In the program for my first Mass, I wrote that I had one request: "Please pray for me. Please pray that I may be a good and holy priest. Please pray that I may be a fervent priest that is able to bring souls to God." That is still my request. Pray for me and I will pray for you. God bless you all.

—Father Guanella

ASSUMPTION CATHOLIC SCHOOLS NEWS

Mission: To inspire excellence and personal growth grounded in Catholic principles and tradition.

Vision: A Community of Academic Excellence, Catholic in Spirit and Culture, Nurturing Integrity and Respect.

Please come and share in the ACS mission and vision this 2023-2024 school year. OLQH serves our area's children in grades K-2 while SVDP serves children in grades 3-5. Our children, faculty and staff are waiting for you. Let God into the daily lives of your children. Look at the wonders it does for your life when you do. Contact Kerry Meinel at 715/422-0901

The Royal Families wish Fr. Patric farewell and that many blessings follow him as he departs SVDP. We also welcome Fr. Schaller and Fr. Williams into our school. We look forward to your collaboration and leadership.

Thank you to all those who are praying for Catholic schools. We feel the support.
