Religious Formation for Grades 1-10

It is time to begin registering for the 2023-24 Our Lady Queen of Heaven's Religious Education program. Elementary and middle school students can attend on campus with an education component for parents or receive materials so that parents and children learn together at home. One year of Religious Formation is required before preparation for Reconciliation/Eucharist and Confirmation. Registration is available online at <https://olqh.regfox.com/faith-formation-registration-2023-2024>.

What's on Formed.org for August?

On August 6, we celebrate the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord. In the Transfiguration, the Church shows us our destination. We see where Jesus is leading us - to the promised land, to heaven. The lesson of the Transfiguration is that we need to allow Our Lord to bring us to the mountain, pray with Him, and see His face. Do you know who Jesus is to follow Him? Check out Symbolon: Knowing the Faith, Session 5: Who is Jesus, to learn more.

August 22, we celebrate the Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Pope Pius XII established this feast in 1954. But the Blessed Virgin Mary's queenship has roots in Scripture. At the Annunciation, Gabriel announced that Mary's Son would receive the throne of David and rule forever. At the Visitation, Elizabeth calls Mary "mother of my Lord." As in all the mysteries of Mary's life, she is closely associated with Jesus: her queenship is a share in Jesus' kingship. We can also recall that in the Old Testament, the mother of the king has great influence in court. In his 1954 encyclical To the Queen of Heaven, Pius XII points out that Mary deserves the title because she is the Mother of God because she is closely associated as the New Eve with Jesus' redemptive work, because of her preeminent perfection, and because of her intercessory power. Check out Symbolon: Knowing the Faith, Session 9: Mary and the Saints.

Donations Needed for Picnic Kids' Games:

Candy donations such as suckers, Warheads, Airheads, Jolly Ranchers, Tootsie Rolls, or any candy that does not contain nuts. Children's toy donations such as Hot Wheels, markers, coloring books, craft items, mini figurines (Marvel, LOL Dolls, or Barbie), Lego items, stress balls or fidgets, yo yos, bubbles, dominoes, pick up sticks type games, stickers, super balls, etc.

FOCUS Food Pantry...Is in need of chicken noodle and tomato soup, elbow and bow tie pasta and hygiene items of shampoo, deodorant and toilet paper and dish soap.

Level I Catechesis of the Good Shepherd will be held this fall for children ages 3-5 on Tuesdays at Our Lady Queen of Heaven Catholic School beginning September 19 from 10:00-11:00 am. CGS is a Montessori-based religious formation program for children beginning at the age of 3 years. It seeks to create and facilitate a sacred "hands-on" space for children called an atrium, in which both the children and their catechists can hear, ponder and celebrate the most essential mysteries of the Catholic faith as revealed in the scriptures and the liturgy. Originally developed in Rome by Sofia Cavalleti and Gianna Gobbi in the 1950s, the Catechesis continues to spread world-wide. The cost for the year is $50. To register, contact Rosemary Hokamp at rhokamp@assumptioncatholicsschools.org. Other Level I sessions are offered at St. Philip's in Rudolph and at St. Peter & Paul Catholic church if the above time does not work out for families. Level II and Level III CGS is offered in the Catholic schools for children in Kindergarten through 5th grade. Parents can sign their children up for these levels as well if you are interested in doing so. Just send an inquiry to the above email.

PASTORAL THOUGHTS...

It is such a joy for me to be assigned to Our Lady Queen of Heaven for the summer! While I've been here for almost a month, this is the first weekend that something written by my hand is featured in the bulletin. My time here will be sadly all too short. I will be departing the parish at the end of August. I have various responsibilities in La Crosse for the diocese. Nevertheless, please take the time to say hi to me after Mass!

My name is David Nowicki, which those of you who are Polish aficionados will recognize my Polish heritage. I was born in the Twin Cities but spent most of my childhood in my extended family's hometown of Athens, Wisconsin. Often as a child I would be found exploring the woods behind my house, playing the drums, or going for a run in the countryside. Despite going to Catholic school through eighth grade and growing up in a Catholic family, I never had any interest in the priesthood as a child. After graduating from Athens High School, I wanted nothing more than to study civil engineering, which I began at the University of Wisconsin—Platteville.

It was at UW-Platteville that the Lord really began opening my heart to His calling. At first I was quite resistant. I remember an instance where I procrastinated a bit too much on a chemistry assignment. While frantically trying to finish it the night before the due date in vain, I received an email from the professor saying that we could turn in our homework the following week. I took this as an obvious sign that God wanted me to be an engineer. However, a life-changing encounter with Christ in the Blessed Sacrament during my sophomore year made me desire to follow Him, even though I didn't know what that meant at the time. While I finished up my engineering degree, much of my time was spent growing closer to Christ to discern who He was calling me to be, which by senior year seemed to be the priesthood.

Growing up in Athens, I never thought about the humanity of priests—their families, their hobbies, or even their hopes & fears. Getting to know priests in college helped me recognize that priests are people, too. So it is for the priests here at Our Lady: yes, they are priests, and that is often a calling much different from the rest of us, but they are at the same time still children of God, just like all of us. Hopefully my five-hundred word blurb here has illustrated that. So when you say hi to me after Mass, please be sure to say hi to Fr. Guanella and Fr. Weller too. I know they'll appreciate it!

Rite of Christian Initiation... In celebrating this month of Our Lady's final journey to God in her glorious Assumption, let us ask her motherly intercession to draw souls to the Sacred Heart of her Son. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a journey, too - of conversion to God and what He intends for us. RCIA is the process by which persons who were never baptized or were baptized in another Christian tradition become members of the Church, a people on pilgrimage to our Heavenly Father. Please contact the parish office or Rebecca Zalar at rzalar@our-lady.org for more information.

ASSUMPTION CATHOLIC SCHOOLS NEWS

Join our OLQH team, you will ♥ it!

Our Lady Queen of Heaven School has an opening for a full time teacher aide/paraprofessional (primarily kindergarten with some duties in grades 1 and 2). Hours for this position are 8 am – 4 pm, Monday-Friday, beginning on August 15.

Please email Shelley Bruley at sbruley@assumptioncatholicschools.org or call 715-422-0982.

Not registered yet? Don't fret!

Registration is still open at all of our Catholic schools in the area. Call the enrollment office at 715-422-0901 to plan a visit. Come and find out the many ways in which a Catholic school education would benefit your child, grandchild, niece or nephew, or a little person you love.

The first day of school for ACS students (grades K-11) is Wednesday, August 30.

Please note: The first day of classes for seniors is Monday, August 28.
