Rite of Christian Initiation...In celebrating this month of Our Lady's final journey to God in her glorious Assumption, let us ask her motherly intercession to draw souls to the Sacred Heart of her Son. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a journey, too - of conversion to God and what He intends for us. RCIA is the process by which persons who were never baptized or were baptized in another Christian tradition become members of the Church, a people on pilgrimage to our Heavenly Father. Please contact the parish office or Rebecca Zalar at rzalar@our-lady.org for more information.

What's on Formed.org for August?

On August 6, we celebrate the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord. In the Transfiguration, the Church shows us our destination. We see where Jesus is leading us - to the promised land, to heaven. The lesson of the Transfiguration is that we need to allow Our Lord to bring us to the mountain, pray with Him, and see His face. Do you know who Jesus is to follow Him? Check out Symbolon: Knowing the Faith, Session 5: Who is Jesus, to learn more.

August 22, we celebrate the Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Pope Pius XII established this feast in 1954. But the Blessed Virgin Mary's queenship has roots in Scripture. At the Annunciation, Gabriel announced that Mary's Son would receive the throne of David and rule forever. At the Visitation, Elizabeth calls Mary "mother of my Lord." As in all the mysteries of Mary's life, she is closely associated with Jesus: her queenship is a share in Jesus' kingship. We can also recall that in the Old Testament, the mother of the king has great influence in court. In his 1954 encyclical To the Queen of Heaven, Pius XII points out that Mary deserves the title because she is the Mother of God because she is closely associated as the New Eve with Jesus' redemptive work, because of her preeminent perfection, and because of her intercessory power. Check out Symbolon: Knowing the Faith, Session 9: Mary and the Saints.

Level I Catechesis of the Good Shepherd will be held this fall for children ages 3-5 on Tuesdays at Our Lady Queen of Heaven Catholic School beginning September 19 from 10:00-11:00 am. CGS is a Montessori-based religious formation program for children beginning at the age of 3 years. It seeks to create and facilitate a sacred "hands-on" space for children called an atrium, in which both the children and their catechists can hear, ponder and celebrate the most essential mysteries of the Catholic faith as revealed in the scriptures and the liturgy. Originally developed in Rome by Sofia Cavalleti and Gianna Gobbi in the 1950s, the Catechesis continues to spread world-wide. The cost for the year is $50. To register, contact Rosemary Hokamp at rhokamp@assumptioncatholicsschools.org. Other Level I sessions are offered at St. Philip's in Rudolph and at St. Peter & Paul Catholic church if the above time does not work out for families. Level II and Level III CGS is offered in the Catholic schools for children in Kindergarten through 5th grade. Parents can sign their children up for these levels as well if you are interested in doing so. Just send an inquiry to the above email.

PASTORAL THOUGHTS...

No Matter How Small

Quite recently I was at my parents' house, and at my suggestion, we watched a movie. The movie box was tucked away, so I thought it would be best to see which ones were easily accessible, and there I discovered the nostalgic 2008 Horton Hears a Who! The Dr. Seuss story is about Horton the Elephant who discovers and saves a tiny speck of dust with an entire society upon it. Throughout the movie, only Horton has the acuity of hearing to detect the existence of the tiny Whos, and as the only one aware of their existence, he is the only one whose heart is moved to defend them from the dangers of the world.

Several things struck me about the story, but maybe just a couple will suffice for this article. Horton's life is changed by a tiny call. Like a man whose life is forever changed by the tiny cry of his baby child, Horton became a caregiver, a father perhaps. When the Whos cry for help, Horton steps up to meet the challenge, and this is what God's call does to us. God's call is a tiny call, quiet, but when heard, it resounds in the walls of our hearts with such noise that we cannot help but answer. Yet we are only moved if we listen, like Horton. God is constantly calling us to heroics in little ways and with quiet voices, through our neighbors asking for help and in the sacred silence of prayer. God's voice echoes in the depths of our conscience, thus helping us to see right and wrong, his will and what is not.

Yet, what struck me even more than the tiny call was the mantra that animated the entire story: "A person's a person, no matter how small." Here the abortion connection becomes quite obvious. Horton was the lone voice of reason amidst the voices that claimed to be reasonable but were otherwise. That speck was more than a speck, just as we know that a fetus is far more than a fetus. Interestingly, it was more than just Horton's view of the Whos that caught my attention, however. Horton not only saw the Whos as persons, but he consistently saw his opponents as persons as well. Throughout the movie, he never fails to see goodness in everyone he meets, even those who attack him. Here we find a powerful lesson for us who defend life. There is hypocrisy if we claim to defend life while hating those who disagree. Pro-life means that we are pro-life inside and outside the womb, and inside and outside our religion. Love is the standard we aim for, in all circumstances, even if that sometimes looks like reprimanding or correcting, but never hatred.

A person's a person, no matter how small. In Christ, ~Fr. Weller

SCAM ALERT—The scammers are at it again. The priests of the parish will never ask you via social media or email to purchase gift cards or send money to them. Always check with the parish office if there is suspicious communication from one of the parish clergy.

The United Way of South Wood/Adams Counties would like to say thank you for the generous donation of school supplies for Stuff the Bus. There was a great turnout and many supplies were able to be distributed to students in our community. We could not make this event as successful as it is every single year without the help of our wonderful community. A huge thank you to everyone involved!
