The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a journey, too - of conversion to God and what He intends for us. RCIA is the process by which persons who were never baptized or were baptized in another Christian tradition become members of the Church, a people on pilgrimage to our Heavenly Father. Level I Catechesis of the Good Shepherd for children ages 3-5, is offered on Tuesdays beginning September 19 from 10:00-11:15 am at Our Lady Queen of Heaven Catholic School. It is an amazing approach to a contemplative catechesis for children. The place of learning is called the atrium. Through the use of many "sensorial" materials, the atrium is a place where the child learns and works with the infancy Narratives of Jesus, the Geography of Israel, the Kingdom Parables, the Paschal Narratives, the articles and gestures of the Mass, Baptism and the altar. We present our faith to the children with a "hands-on" approach that lets them become part of the Mass and the Bible. There are only 2 spots left. Contact Rosemary Hokamp at rhokamp@assumptioncatholicsschools.org for more information. The cost is $50 for the year.

Greetings from the Social Justice Committee:

Share your harvest: There is a small table in the gathering area where you can share your produce. If you have extra, leave it, and if you can use it, please take it. It is one small way we can take care of each other.

Coat Collection: For the month of October we will be doing a winter coat collection. The donated coats should be in good shape, with no holes and the zippers or buttons should be working so the coat can be closed to keep people warm. If you wouldn't wear it, we shouldn't ask someone else to wear it. Coats can be any size, men's, women's or children's coats. The knitting group is working on some hats, mittens and scarves to go with the coats. Please place any donated items in the bins near the front and side doors to the church. Thank you for sharing your gifts.

PASTORAL THOUGHTS...

The dictionary defines the word “gift” as “a thing given willingly to someone without payment: a present. These gifts are usually associated with joyful occasions like Christmas, birthdays, or other special events. They often bring us joy and hold significant value in our lives. As the dictionary indicates, we experience joy, excitement, and enthusiasm when we think of a gift. Additionally, that excitement is multiplied by the willingness and joy of the person giving the gift to us and the conditions surrounding the event of giving. The joy is magnified by the knowledge and the esteem the receiver has for the giver. This knowledge helps us reflect upon how good God is in our lives of Faith. Gifts from God are simply astonishing. God is so good, and His gifts awaken in us a sense of gratitude beyond any other we could receive from any other benefactor or friend.

Along with our brothers and sisters in faith, we share the great gift of the priesthood in these late summer days among our friends, families, parishioners and other people we may know who have recently celebrated ordinations to the priesthood. Now, there’s a gift worth talking about in so many ways. The Church has such joyful excitement and enthusiasm about the priesthood. With plenty of good reasons!

Pope St. John Paul the Great wrote letters to the priests of the Church on many Holy Thursday celebrations during his papacy. On one such occasion, he wrote concerning the Eucharist. I call it to your attention: “At dusk I see you entering the Upper Room for the beginning of the Easter Triduum. It is precisely to that ‘large room upstairs’ that Jesus invites us to return each Holy Thursday. At the Last Supper, we were born as priests: for this reason, it is both a pleasure and a duty to gather once again in the Upper Room and to remind one another with heartfelt gratitude of the lofty mission which we share. We were born from the Eucharist. If we can truly say that the whole Church lives from the Eucharist, we can say the same thing about the ministerial priesthood: it is born, lives, works, and bears fruit from the Eucharist. There can be no Eucharist without the priesthood, just as there can be no priesthood without the Eucharist.”

Pope St. John Paul the Great calls us to consider and reflect upon the reality of the Eucharist as the true gift and mystery of the Savior Himself, to us, in and through the Church. The Church was founded from His open side as His sacred body was pierced, and His precious blood flowed from the open wound for the sake of our redemption and unity with Him for eternity in heaven. Our Blessed Lord brings us to great awareness of this tremendous gift and mystery each and every day as we celebrate the Holy Mass. We remind ourselves: no Priest, no Eucharist—a gift truly given freely, Love beyond all measure, beyond all exception. As we celebrate the priesthood, we truly need to be aware of the astonishing dynamic and connection between God and man in the gift and mystery of the priesthood—we cannot have one without the other. Praised be Jesus Christ!
