PASTORAL THOUGHTS...

Are you making yourself available to God?

The third commandment states: "Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day." What does it mean to keep Holy the Sabbath day? Keeping Holy the Sabbath is more than just making it to Mass for an hour on Saturday evening or Sunday. It means making ourselves available to God and being present to Him. It means giving God our day and week and being present to God who is present to us.

In a world where everything is so fast-paced, life has a way of getting full and very noisy quickly. Our prayer and spiritual lives get pushed aside due to the lack of time and overstimulation. We end up just not having the time to pray or attend to our spiritual lives. This is why God gives us the third commandment which is a commandment to "rest."

The Mass is meant to be the central focus of Sabbath rest and worship. Most importantly, the Eucharist is the source and summit of our faith. The Eucharist plays an important role in our "rest." How? The Eucharist can help us refocus ourselves towards God during times of stress, temptation, and boredom.

The Letter Dominicae Cenae, by St. Pope John Paul II says, "The Church and the world have a great need of Eucharistic worship. Jesus waits for us in this sacrament of love. Let us be generous with our time in going to meet Him in adoration and in contemplation that is full of faith and ready to make reparation for the great faults and crimes of the world by our adoration never cease." I encourage you to make time for Him by stopping in church or going to the Marian Center for Peace. We are fortunate to have a 24/7 adoration chapel available to us. Taking time to spend with our Lord can transform our week as well as our life. My hope for you is that this becomes something that not only gets you through the week but something that you constantly yearn for.
