Year End Contributions

As the end of the calendar year approaches, you are reminded that charitable contributions must be applied to the year in which they are received. The only exception is when a check is mailed: it is applied to the year the check/envelope is postmarked, even if it is received in the next calendar year.

If you wish to claim your parish contribution or diocesan annual appeal donation as a charitable deduction for income tax purposes for 2023, you must have your contribution to the parish office (or diocese) by December 31. If you mail it, it must be postmarked on or before December 31st. Thank you.

PASTORAL THOUGHTS...

I HEARD THE BELLS ON CHRISTMAS DAY

On July 9, 1861 Henry Wadsworth Longfellow's wife, Fanny, was setting her daughter's hair with a hot sealing wax when suddenly her dress caught fire. Henry, sleeping in the next room, heard her screams and rushed to her aid. In desperation he tried to put out the flames and in doing so severely burned his face and hands. His wife was burned so badly that within a day she lapsed into a coma and died. Henry was so severely burned that he was not able to attend her funeral.

As poetry was one of his greatest crafts, he continued to work, but with long periods of silence. His eyes told of his personal suffering. About three years later, his son was seriously injured in the Civil War, fighting for the Union. At this time, Longfellow sat down and wrote about the joys of the season of Christmas. His poem began:

I heard the bells on Christmas Day / Their old, familiar carols play, / and mild and sweet / The words repeat / Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

With the civil war still going on, brother fighting against brother, his own son injured, he continued writing:

And in despair I bowed my head; / "There is no peace on earth," I said; / "For hate is strong, / And mocks the song
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!"

It was then that he turned to the one who helps solve all of mankind's problems, the One, as they say, can give us true peace on earth:

Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: / "God is not dead, nor doth He sleep; / The Wrong shall fail, / The Right prevail, / With peace on earth, good-will to men."

May there be peace on earth this Christmas and good will toward all. Merry Christmas from Deacon Tom and Mary

World Mission Sunday

A heart-felt thank you from the Society for the Propagation of the Faith and our Diocesan Mission Office to OLQH Parish for your generous response of prayer and sacrifices for World Mission Sunday. Your response to Pope Francis' call to have our "Hearts on Fire, feet on the move" gives witness to your commitment to Christ and His teachings. We will forward your financial contribution of $2,826.00 to our national office. The collected funds will assist in spreading God's message of hope and peace to the poor, those suffering persecution for their faith, and those who are yet to experience the redeeming power of the Gospel.

Scrip News: There are now $25 scrip cards for El Café in Port Edwards available in the Scrip Office with a 10% rebate.

Adult Faith Formation January Bible Study on Ruth

Join us this January as we dive into the Book of Ruth. The Book of Ruth gives us an example of how God is always faithful to His promises, without exception. Ruth trusted in God even when her world fell into pieces - and He turned every inch of that pain into the purest light for His faithful daughter. Let God do the same for you. Book Study begins on January 4 at 9:00 am in the Gathering Space. The book costs $14 and can be purchased at the Parish office. Please read Chapter 1 by January 4.

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

The preparations for Christmas include buying or making gifts for those we love. You can give no better gift than the gift that God has given to us: His Son, Jesus. Invite someone who is not Catholic to attend Mass with you at Christmas. For information about OCIA, contact Rebecca at rzalar@our-lady.org or call at 715 - 423 - 1251.
