A Minute with Jesus during the National Eucharistic Revival

Jesus wants to stay with us always.

Jesus loves each one of us so much that He gives Himself to us in Holy Communion at Mass. We receive Jesus Himself. When the priest prays the words of Jesus over the bread and wine at Mass, they are no longer bread and wine but the Body and Blood of Christ. Jesus gives Himself to us because He wants to stay with each one of us always.

Let's pray this right now and every day this week: Jesus, thank You for always wanting to stay with us. This week, read from Scripture about the birth of the Christ Child in Luke 2:1-7

Encounter Jesus
in the Eucharist.
He waits for you!

What Are You Looking For?

The first question that Jesus asks in John's Gospel is, "What are you looking for?" He is speaking to John's disciples as they follow after Him, desiring to know who Jesus is and what His mission is all about. After the disciples respond, Jesus gives them an instruction, "Come and you will see!" Whether we can hear it or not, that same question is being asked to you. What are YOU looking for? So often, we find ourselves searching, not knowing exactly where to go or what to do in life. We seek things that will hopefully fill the emptiness and longing that we have in our hearts, but nothing seems to satisfy them. The real answer to this can be found in Jesus' response as He invites each of us to follow after Him, to get to know Him, and to follow the path He has placed before us. For some men, that path is a very special invitation to walk in Jesus' footsteps as a priest. If you or someone you know is interested in discovering more about this call to the priesthood, please contact me at: Fr. Nate Kuhn, Director of Vocational Recruitment for the Diocese of La Crosse, 3710 East Ave. S. PO Box 4004, La Crosse, WI 54602; or by phone at: 608.791.2667. God bless you!

January 1 - Solemnity of Mary, The Holy Mother of God

(Understanding Catholic Teaching on the Blessed Virgin Mary by Tom Perna)

Grow more deeply in your relationship with God by knowing Mary more intimately. Let's explore the meaning behind the four Marian dogmas: Mother of God, Perpetual Virginity, Immaculate Conception, and her Assumption into Heaven.

January 2 - Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord (Who are the Magi?)

In this FORMED Now! special episode, Dr. Michael Barber sits down to reflect on the Magi from the Gospel accounts and what spiritual lessons can be learned from this historical event recorded in Scripture.

January 8 - The Baptism of the Lord (The Wild Goose: Episode 10 The Spirit and the Desert)

Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, to be tempted by the devil." - Luke 4:1
On the day Jesus was baptized, the Holy Spirit anointed him. Immediately after this event the Holy Spirit led Jesus to the desert. The desert was a place of isolation, death, and defeat, but Jesus was led to the desert so that it may be forever changed into a place of grace. The Spirit led Jesus to the desert and also protected and cared for him while he was there. The desert is a part of every Christian's life but it does not have to be a place of despair or isolation. The Holy Spirit is present to life's deserts and when we experience his presence it changes our spiritual life. The desert is no longer a place to be feared but can be a profound encounter with Jesus.

January 22 - Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children (Symbolon: pt2: Session 10: Protecting Human Dignity)

In an age when life itself seems disposable, how can we follow God's call to protect and promote the dignity of the human person in all places and circumstances?

Greetings from the Social Justice Committee: Merry Christmas

Thank you for your generosity and caring. This parish family was able to provide Christmas gifts to 140 children in South Wood County. Several parishioners sponsored an entire family. Thank you for sharing your gifts with others.

Upcoming activities:

- The weekend of January 14th will be the sister parish dollar collection
- The Wood County jail has a need for gently used men's winter coats sizes large, XL and XXL, and gently used men's shoes 9, 10 or 11. If you can contribute, place it in the bins near the doors of the church.

“You don’t want to be a Judas”...

When I was in College, I was invited to spend the week at a friend’s cabin with their family. I will never forget the Sunday I went to Mass with them. Towards the end of Mass, we noticed a few people leaving at the end of Communion. My friend’s mother looked at me and asked, “You know who left the Last Supper first don’t you?” I thought for a few minutes and realized she was referring to Judas. When she realized I knew whom she was referring to she said, “You don’t want to be a Judas.” This comment always stuck with me and left me reflecting on When does the Mass end?

When we are invited to a dinner at someone else's house do we leave right after eating? I hope we don't! Leaving right during the meal is rude and disrespectful. At Mass we are invited to the Lord’s Supper and it is important that we be present mentally and physically until the end of Mass. Leaving right after Communion is just like leaving right after we finished eating at someone else's house.

The end of Mass according to the Roman Rite is the dismissal. The Roman Rite does not prescribe a closing hymn. Having a closing hymn has become customary but is not prescribed. There are four dismissal formulas: “Go forth, the Mass is ended.” “Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord.” “Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life.” and “Go in peace.” While not having a closing hymn may feel weird, the dismissal is a powerful command that requires us to act!

So why should you stay until the dismissal? The dismissal is a blessing. When Father, who acts In Persona Christi (In the Person of Christ), gives the final blessing, we are being blessed by God Himself. If Jesus were giving us the final blessing before we went out into the world, wouldn’t you wait for His blessing? We also receive more grace by staying till the end of Mass. Sr. Theresa Aletheia Noble, FSP in a recent article she wrote states: “According to the Catechism, “The fruits of the sacraments...depend on the disposition of the one who receives them” (CCC 1128). There is a power in the sacraments in and of themselves, but how much of that power seeps into our souls and plays out in our lives depends on our disposition. If we are rushing out of church after communion, chances are our disposition is not such that we are reverentially aware... that we are consuming the body, blood, soul and divinity of God Himself.”

As we prepare for the Lenten season, we are called not only to abstain from luxuries, but to a true inner conversion of heart as we seek to follow Christ more faithfully. So the next time that you are at Mass, ask yourself where your heart truly is. Is it at Mass or is it outside of Mass in the material world?
