PASTORAL THOUGHTS...

The English term 'Lent' comes from an Anglo-Saxon word that means 'Spring' since the Season of Lent falls during the Spring season. In Latin, Lent is called Quadragesima which means 'fortieth day' and tells us of the great forty day fast that Christians undertake during the Season of Lent. The Code of Canon Law classifies the Season of Lent as a penitential season and thus Christians throughout the Season of Lent spend time in preparation for the coming Easter celebration through prayer, penance, repentance, almsgiving, and self-denial, such as through fasting from food and abstaining from meat.

The three great pillars of Lent are prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Each of these three pillars is like one leg of a three-legged stool: all must be in place for a fruitful Lent or a sturdy stool. The Lenten pillar of prayer can be practiced in many different ways: through the Stations of the Cross, attending daily Mass, spending time in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, or by joining one of the Lenten study or prayer groups at local parishes. You may also want to read and pray with the so-called seven penitential psalms: psalms 6, 32, 38, 51, 102, 130, and 143 or by reading the Passion Narrative in the Gospels, the final chapters of the Gospels that tell the story of Jesus' passion, death, and Resurrection. Participation in the Sacrament of Penance is highly encouraged for all during the Season of Lent.

The Code of Canon Law requires fasting only on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Complete abstinence from meat is required on Ash Wednesday and on all Fridays of Lent, including Good Friday. Why do we fast? Christians fast during Lent to imitate Christ as he fasted for forty days and forty nights in the desert and also to order the bodily desires under the higher powers of the soul: the intellect and will. It is within this pillar of Lent where "giving up" something for Lent comes into play—we order our physical desires under the control of reason through fasting and sacrifice and order our reason under the power of God. St. Leo the Great tells us: Let us use fasting to make up for what we have lost by despising others. Let us offer our souls in sacrifice by means of fasting.

Almsgiving means supporting the Church and our neighbor financially, as well as with our time and talents. There are many opportunities to give financially to the poor and needy in Lent, through the Church and other organizations. Volunteering at local organizations whose mission is to help the poor can also be a part of almsgiving. The old 1907 Catholic Encyclopedia admonishes us: Almsgiving should be discreet, so as to reach deserving individuals or families; prompt, so as to warrant opportuneness; secret and humble; cheerful; and abundant. St. Leo the Great also tells us, concerning almsgiving: The giver of alms should be free from anxiety and full of joy. His gain will be greatest when he keeps back least for himself. While Lent may be a season of penitence, it, as the English name suggests, is a season of spring: a season of new life and growth where we Christians grow in grace, even through the "night" of our penance and self-denial.
