PASTORAL THOUGHTS...

"IF IT'S A SYMBOL, TO HELL WITH IT!" (Part One)

These words were spoken by Flannery O'Connor, a devout Catholic in 1950, in response to Mary McCarthy a career writer and fallen away Catholic, about the Eucharist, after she said, "I think of the Eucharist as a symbol." Flannery O'Connor who herself will become a prominent Catholic writer was quick to respond, "If it's a symbol, to hell with it."

When one hears that over half of practicing Catholics do not see the Eucharist any more than just a symbol, it is time for a Eucharistic Revival. In the Catechism, # 1324 it says; "The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life." The other sacraments of the Church, the Church ministries, and all its works, are attached and point to the Eucharist. Thomas Aquinas said that Jesus' power is in effect in the other sacraments, but he is truly present in the sacrament of the altar.

The substance of the bread and wine become the substance of Christ's body, while the appearance remains as bread and wine. (Transubstantiation) Jesus used many times, when he spoke, parables, analogies to help those who heard his words better understand their meaning.

In many of our Scripture readings we hear what Jesus said about the bread of life, the bread of eternal life. "Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life."

(John 6:26-27) "Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness and died, this is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die." (John 6:49-50) Jesus then says, "I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; AND THE BREAD THAT I WILL GIVE FOR THE LIFE OF THE WORLD IS MY FLESH." (John 6:51)

Jesus spoke to his disciples about eating his flesh and drinking his blood and many were driven away. Jesus could have easily said wait I was not talking literally only symbolically, but instead he continued, "For my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink." (John 6:55)

*The bread of life discourse shows that the disciples of Jesus understand that this Jesus they have been following, meant exactly what he had said. Even Jesus knew that this was a statement he had to make and when those who heard it had left, he turned himself to the twelve and asked, "DO YOU ALSO WISH TO GO AWAY?"

Deacon Tom (Part Two next month)
