PASTORAL THOUGHTS...

"IF IT'S A SYMBOL, TO HELL WITH IT!" (Conclusion)

"Through Him, with Him and in Him," is the Eucharistic prayer that we hear at Mass, and very well describes that which we are about to partake in.

Through general reading of what sacraments are, we come to understand that they are signs, signs of grace, and through them we receive grace. Thomas Aquinas simply said; "They cause what they signify." The Eucharist is necessary to nourish a life of grace. It is the mystery of water and wine that we come to share in the divinity of Christ. Just as he comes into our life to share in our humanity.

Bishop Barron explains the substances of bread and wine changing into the Body and Blood of Jesus, while remaining in appearance bread and wine, by saying, "The same God who made bread and wine from nothing and sustains them from moment to moment can transform the deepest ontological (the nature of existence) centers of those things into something else." Pope Benedict defined this very well when he said, "...the bread and wine lose their independence as creatures and become through God's power, pure signs of Christ's presence."

An important statement to remember is that of Thomas Aquinas when he said, "God does not know things because they exist, but rather that things exist because God knows them." Jesus' words in his ministry have an effect and they transform or alter to whom or what he is referencing. That is why when we now come to the Last Supper and we hear Jesus say; "This is my Body" and "This is my Blood," that altered, changed that bread and wine into his Body and Blood.

Bishop Barron said, "This efficacious or effective word of Christ...endures in the Church...in its preaching, its teaching, its sacraments and above all in the Eucharistic liturgy." The priest states these words of Christ at the Last Supper, at each Mass and then in the person of Christ (Persona Christi) he states Jesus' words, "This is my Body, which will be given up for you...the chalice of my Blood, the Blood of the new and eternal covenant."

The real presence of Christ in the Eucharist is the effect of power of the word, the word which is Jesus himself. If the elements of bread and wine were merely symbols we would be able to say "TO HELL WITH IT" But they are truly the presence of God through the word of Jesus, and now the priest, and it has an effect on our lives as Christians for when we receive and say Amen, we are saying, "I BELIEVE"
