DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY
Sunday, April 7, 2024
Sacred Heart Catholic Church
 711 Prospect Avenue
 Nekoosa, WI 54457
 Afternoon will include:
 • 1:15 Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament / Confessions
 • 2:45 Reflection on Divine Mercy
 • 3:00 Divine Mercy Chaplet (sung)
 • 3:20 Benediction / Reposition of the Blessed Sacrament
 (To earn the Plenary Indulgence on this day, participants are asked to go to Confession remaining free from all attachment to sin, receive Holy Communion on Divine Mercy Sunday, recite the Divine Mercy Chaplet in front of the Blessed Sacrament and pray for the intentions of the Holy Father. The purpose of Lent is to prepare us for Easter and Divine Mercy Sunday, so one shouldn't wait until the last moment to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Going earlier shows pastoral sensitivity to the fact that there is a shortage of priests to hear everyone's confession on Divine Mercy Sunday.)

Learning Forgiveness through Sacred Art and the Bible

Have you ever noticed the large picture above the display cabinet in the gathering space? This picture is of a painting by Rembrandt in 1669. Based on the parable in Luke 15:11-32, "The Return of the Prodigal Son." This parable is one of the most significant parables of the Bible.

The parable begins with a young man returning home after spending all his father's hard-earned money abroad on a lavish lifestyle. He returns financially and emotionally broke and asks for his father's forgiveness. His father welcomes him home and orders a fattened calf to be killed in his honor. The father's actions infuriated the older brother, who had spent all his life obeying his father and was never rewarded. When the older son asks his father why he would reward his younger brother for his behavior, the father replies:

"Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. It was fitting to make merry and be glad, for this your brother was dead, and is alive; he was lost, and is found."

What can we learn about the virtue of forgiveness from this passage and art piece? Just like the father in this parable, God wants us to return to Him in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. When we make mistakes like the younger son, we need to acknowledge those mistakes, be genuinely sorry, and return to our Heavenly Father. Lent is a perfect time to reflect on the meaning of forgiveness. In many of our scripture passages for Lent, Jesus shows us by example how we are to forgive others.

Forgiveness can be challenging, especially when we harbor hate within our hearts. The power that hate can have over a person is beyond wild! Hate isolates yourself from friends, family, and our Heavenly Father. When we harbor hate, we put up spiritual blocks between God and ourselves. Hatred eventually takes over everything and makes us something hideous. Only you can decide if you genuinely want to be healed; no one else can force you to be healed.

If you struggle with hatred and forgiveness, don't hesitate to go to a priest first for spiritual guidance. Most of the time, this conversation will lead to the Sacrament of Reconciliation. However, we still need to remember that priests are here for spiritual guidance and that sometimes, our struggles go into the category of counseling. Your struggles may require someone other than a priest to address the situation.

This Lent, I challenge you to go to the Sacrament of Reconciliation more than once. Come back to our Heavenly Father with a contrite heart.

If you would like to reflect more on the meaning of Rembrandt's painting, Henri Nouwen's book The Return of the Prodigal Son: A Story of Homecoming is a great way to continue your reflection.

For those who are fearful, dubious, unrepentant, or otherwise reluctant, Bishop Louis Gaston de Segur provides Confession: A Little Book for the Reluctant to allay fears and to give courage in approaching Confession.
