ADVERTISER OF THE WEEK

Thank you for supporting our parish!

Please support the advertisers who make our bulletin possible!

Quote for the week: "How can I go home to a comfortable bed, knowing there are thousands of children that are out there in the streets; sleeping outside in the cold, hungry, with no hope in their mind?"
Fr. Joseph Walijewski

April 20-21, Msgr. Joseph Hirsch will celebrate Mass at Our Lady Queen of Heaven and share the story of Casa Hogar, a home for youth in Peru, with the mission of delivering high quality care in a family environment. There are 64 children and 8 families who live at Casa Hogar ranging in age from 5 to 18 years. Living together today because of the vision and sacrifices of Fr. Joseph Walijewski.

Through his first hand stories, Msgr. Hirsch will share how over the years Casa Hogar has provided many children with a safe and caring environment where they gain the confidence to develop skills that empower and enable them for a more promising future. All thanks to the generosity and support of many people and organizations in the Diocese of La Crosse and throughout the United States.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY
Sunday, April 7, 2024
Sacred Heart Catholic Church
711 Prospect Avenue
Nekoosa, WI 54457
Afternoon will include:

- 1:15 Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament / Confessions
- 2:45 Reflection on Divine Mercy
- 3:00 Divine Mercy Chaplet (sung)
- 3:20 Benediction / Reposition of the Blessed Sacrament

(To earn the Plenary Indulgence on this day, participants are asked to go to Confession remaining free from all attachment to sin, receive Holy Communion on Divine Mercy Sunday, recite the Divine Mercy Chaplet in front of the Blessed Sacrament and pray for the intentions of the Holy Father. The purpose of Lent is to prepare us for Easter and Divine Mercy Sunday, so one shouldn't wait until the last moment to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Going earlier shows pastoral sensitivity to the fact that there is a shortage of priests to hear everyone's confession on Divine Mercy Sunday.)

PASTORAL THOUGHTS...

On March 19, 2024, the Solemnity of St. Joseph, our Holy Father Pope Francis accepted the resignation of our diocesan bishop, Bishop William Patrick Callahan. Immediately upon the acceptance of his resignation, Bishop Callahan became the bishop emeritus and the Diocese of La Crosse became a “vacant see” (known in Latin as a sede vacante). However, quite surprisingly, Pope Francis immediately named a successor to Bishop Callahan, Bishop Gerard Battersby, formerly an auxiliary bishop of Detroit, to become La Crosse’s eleventh bishop. Bishop Battersby will be installed on May 20 at the Cathedral in La Crosse.

Canon law requests that bishops submit their resignation to the Holy Father when they turn 75. The Holy Father can choose to accept it immediately or wait for a time until it is accepted. Sometimes, due to health reasons, a bishop will submit his resignation early. This is what happened in the case of Bishop Callahan who turns 74 this coming June. What is somewhat unusual is that at the same time Pope Francis accepted Bishop Callahan’s resignation, he also named a new bishop for the diocese. Normally there is a period of “interregnum” where the diocese is vacant and no bishop has been named. In our case, this did not happen. Furthermore, Pope Francis named Bishop Callahan as the Apostolic Administrator of the diocese until Bishop Battersby is installed in May. Bishop Callahan thus will still administer the diocese until Bishop Battersby arrives.

Bishop Gerard William Battersby was born on May 15, 1960. He graduated from Wayne State University (Detroit) in 1983 with a Bachelor of Science degree in biology. He entered Sacred Heart Major Seminary in 1993 and received a Master of Divinity Degree in 1998. In 2009, he was assigned to graduate studies at the University of St. Thomas (the Angelicum) in Rome. He also earned a Licentiate in Sacred Theology (STL) in the New Evangelization from the Angelicum through its partnership with Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit.

After ordination to the priesthood, he served in parish ministry for ten years. Bishop Battersby then served as director of graduate seminarians and graduate pastoral formation at Sacred Heart Major Seminary, Detroit. In 2011, he was appointed Vice-Rector and Dean of Seminary Formation at Sacred Heart Major Seminary and was ordained to the Episcopacy as an Auxiliary Bishop of Detroit (and Titular Bishop of Eguga) in January 2017.

The Diocese of La Crosse looks forward to welcoming Bishop Gerard Battersby on May 20!

—Fr. Guanella
