Christian Initiation (RCIA)

Many people have said that what drew them to the Catholic Church was the Eucharist. As we reflect on recognizing Jesus in the Breaking of the Bread, think for a moment whether there is someone you could invite to Mass and explore what else the Catholic faith might hold for them. For information, contact Rebecca Zalar at rzalar@our-lady.org.

Invest in our Youth: Be a Trip Stockholder

Our youth will travel June 23-28 (New Date) for a summer youth camp in Mason, WI. Adventure Camp allows young people to grow more deeply in their relationship with Christ and connect it to every aspect of their lives. You are invited to invest in this work by participating in our annual "Stock Sale." For just $10 per share, shareholders will receive a stock certificate, daily email updates from the trips with photos and news, and a seat at the popular "Shareholder's Luncheon" in the fall, where the youth will talk about the trip and share a slideshow of their experience. Donation forms are on the table in the gathering space.

Greetings from the Social Justice Committee.

Easter Joy to all of you. Thank you so much for your generosity during the Lenten Collections. Our parish is so fortunate to have so many giving, caring individuals. During Lent, we made several trips each week to the food pantry (FOCUS) with food, and hygiene items, and diapers. We donated food to the MSTC food pantry for the college students. We made 3 trips to First Choice Pregnancy Center on 8th Street to stock up their infant pantry with baby items. We took assorted items to the Family Center to help individuals start new lives. Through your generosity we made donations to the Shepherd's Loft with clothing, blankets and pill bottles. We took lots of notebooks, puzzle books and cheater glasses to the Wood County Jail.

A special thank you to Rebecca Zalar and the high school religious education classes, and confirmation candidates who helped decorate and assemble small Easter bags for the Wood County jail inmates. The bags had sayings such as "Easter is a time of hope, of new beginnings, you can change your life."

Thank you to the knitters/crocheters of the parish. We took baby blankets to First Choice, some winter hats to WRPS, and lap blankets and shawls with local nursing homes. We also shared some of the shampoo, body wash and lotions with the nursing homes for people who don't have that.

What a wonderful way to do the Lord's work during Lent. Thank you for your compassion and generosity with our neighbors. God's blessings to you all.

May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

The Shepherd should smell like the sheep

Pope Saint Pius X received four priests in the apostolic palace one day and greeted each of them individually. The first introduced himself as a university professor. The second priest served on the faculty of a seminary. The third practiced canon law in his chancery. The fourth priest simply said, “Habeo Curam Animarum,” which means, “I have the care of souls.” In a very beautiful way this priest was telling Pope Pius X that he was a parish priest and then he asked for his excellences' blessing. Instead of giving him his blessing, it was Pope Pius X who knelt before the parish priest and asked him for his blessing.

On this Good Shepherd Sunday, regardless of the cycle of the Liturgical year, we hear about the analogy of Jesus as the Good Shepherd. The Good Shepherd who in year A is like the shepherd who protects his sheep, for he is the sheep gate which guards his sheep from those who wish them harm.

In year C of the Liturgical year, we hear that Jesus is the caring shepherd, who knows and calls each of his sheep by name and they know him.

In year B, this Liturgical year, we hear that Jesus is the model of the shepherd who was willing and did die, and like the rain that falls on both the good and the bad, he died for all of mankind.

On this fourth Sunday of Easter we pray for more vocations, more Good Shepherds to lead the church, to guide the flock through lives of service, spreading the good news, of spreading the truth, the moral truth so desperately needed in today's world.

It is hard to be Christian in a society that is more worried about feelings than it is about the moral truth. It is when we do not stand up for the truth that we find the ethical bar of society being lowered, and it weakens our own moral compass.

We are called not to judge, but we are also called to adhering to loving and not judging the person, but the Good Shepherd also demands we also tell them the truth. We are all called, and truly are children of God through baptism, which allows us by faith to know Jesus, not just know about Jesus. Regardless of what cycle we are in we are all called to reflect on what kind of shepherd we are.

We were all designed by God to hear the voice of the Good Shepherd, through our own internal voice, our properly-formed conscience. We all feel comfortable with the depiction of the Good Shepherd, who leads us beside the still waters, refreshes our souls and protects us in those times when the wolves of the world, relativism, materialism lead us away, embarking to find us and bring us back to the fold. Jesus not only smells like the sheep, but he also willingly died for his sheep.

A small portion of a Carole King song said it this way; “...and when my soul was in the lost and found, you came along to claim it.”

Deacon Tom

School News

Almighty God, You have given my kids all the talents, abilities, and spiritual gifts they need to follow Your plan for their lives. Lord, help them use those gifts to serve You first and others second, so that Your will is accomplished in their lives. Lord, fill their lives with trusted teachers and advisers who can lead them toward You and Your promises. Help them turn to you as they learn and grow so they can lead fruitful and prosperous lives. Amen.
