Parish Pictorial Directories

There are still some directories that haven't been picked up. They are on the table that is under pictures of the pastors in the gathering space.

The parish also has extra copies of the directory. They are available for purchase at the parish office. They are $25 per book.

Each year there are three dates that are options for couples celebrating their 50th Wedding Anniversary to come together to have Mass with the Bishop, followed by a dinner celebration. Invitations were mailed to couples with wedding dates listed in our records. If you do not receive an invitation this week, please contact your parish office and/or email Laura Boden at lboden@diolc.org to let us know. We will be happy to be sure you are on the list and receive an invitation.

The scheduled dates, times and locations are as follows.

July 14, 2024 at 1:00pm at

St. Bronislava Catholic Church in Plover

August 11, 2024 at 1:00pm

Holy Cross Diocesan Center in La Crosse

August 25, 2024 at 1:00pm

Christian Initiation (RCIA)

Many people have said that what drew them to the Catholic Church was the Eucharist. As we reflect on recognizing Jesus in the Breaking of the Bread, think for a moment whether there is someone you could invite to Mass and explore what else the Catholic faith might hold for them. For information, contact Rebecca Zalar at rzalar@our-lady.org.

Grief Support Group- Wisconsin Rapids Deanery "Serenity" Grief Support Group meets on the 3rd Monday of the month in the Gathering Space of St Vincent de Paul Church from 1-2 pm. The next meeting is July 15th.

A Pro-Life Rosary will be said on Monday, July 8th at 4:00 pm along Eighth Street. All are welcome to join us. We will gather in Grace's parking lot at 3:45.

Mission Rosary Makers —The next date is Wednesday, July 17th. Please join us in the cafeteria from 1:00 to 3:00 pm. All are welcome to join us.

The Diocesan TV Masses recorded at OLQH will be broadcast on July 14, 21, 28. TV Mass on Spectrum 985 or Solarus 3: OLQH Mass at 9 AM on Wednesday; Diocesan Mass at 6:30 AM on Sunday. Mass is also broadcast on Sunday at 6 AM on WZAW 7.3 (FOX) and at 6:30 AM on WJFW 12.1 (NBC).

New! Adult Faith Formation Quads

This year OLQH will be doing things a little differently when it comes to Adult Faith Formation. We are turning towards creating small groups rather than large groups. A quad is a group of four people who journey together as disciples through weekly gatherings of fellowship, ongoing conversion, and learning. This 12-month path of accompaniment fosters growth through prayer, accountability, and authentic relationships. Each quad, with the help of the Director of Religious Education, chooses the topic they wish to study. If you are interested in joining a quad, please contact Rebecca at rzalar@our-lady.org or 715-423-125. Quads will officially begin in September.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

PASTORAL THOUGHTS...

Our journey has a Eucharistic shape: knowing that it is the Father's plan to reestablish all creation in His son Jesus: that he must increase and we decrease, which is why he instituted the sacraments, buying us back from our enslavement, to make us, with every encounter with himself, with every affirmation we offer in our way of living, our fiat, most especially in Eucharistic communion, proclaiming as we do the lordship of Jesus in our lives. This journey is specifically apostolic. It is truly Catholic because it is Eucharistic and Marian, Christocentric, and Trinitarian, as Blessed Columba Marmion taught. We, my brothers and sisters, are on a journey, and it is not simply fortuitous that the Eucharistic renewal now rising in our nation is a simple coincidence: it is a prophetic sign for the Church, the Church in the United States, for the Church of La Crosse, to simply embrace anew the path of discipleship which is cruciform, sacramental, and essentially Eucharistic. It is Christ's initiative which we offer our own 'Amen.'

We are a Eucharistic people called to bear witness to resurrected love, called to be love in Jesus. This is our identity and mission. We are called to be a priestly and Eucharistic people on mission, to be, as St. Peter Chrysologus wrote, "both sacrifice to God and His priest." He wrote: "Do not forfeit what Divine authority confers on you. Take up the sword of the Spirit. Let your heart be an altar, then with full confidence in God present your body for sacrifice. God desires not death but faith. God thirsts not for blood but for self-surrender. God is appeased not by slaughter but by the offering of your free will." This is our way forward: to offer and become a living oblation poured out for many. It is a priestly journey for a priestly people. It is a journey that involves sacrifice: one primarily liturgical, sacramental, and fundamentally Eucharistic. It is our way of becoming the way for the bloom of our aching to grow to fulfillment.

My dear brothers and sisters, I am by grace your bishop and by the grace of God, you are my people. Let us not in these coming days tarry in fallow fields, for time is far shorter than we might imagine. Let us not spend the time left to us in unworthy and undignified pursuits for a believer. Let us spend our days so that we might become singularly focused, allowing ourselves to be captivated anew by love. Let us repent and rise from the torpor of satiety. Let us believe again, pressing into the Truth with our flesh and blood, our future and past, as the apostles themselves did, following the resurrection, knowing in the depths of their souls and ours that he is risen and that the risen one is truly Lord and that wondrously so you and I are his witnesses, his ambassadors, who can know and do nothing without him.

Let us ask the Holy Spirit to set this local church ablaze. Let us ask the Holy Spirit to bring resurrected life to you and me as he does in our own Eucharistic communion. Let us be set on fire so that his love might flow through us into the local community, into your families, into the world. Let us put aside lesser tasks and devote ourselves to the breaking of the bread and prayers, to being Christ's ambassadors, to being Christ's witnesses here and now. If not now, when? If not who, it is you. Let ourselves be fully devoted to the one who aches for us, that we, you and I, might ache for him.

+Bishop Gerard W. Battersby, D.D.
Bishop of La Crosse
