New! Adult Faith Formation Quads

This year OLQH will be doing things a little differently when it comes to Adult Faith Formation. We are turning towards creating small groups rather than large groups. A quad is a group of four people who journey together as disciples through weekly gatherings of fellowship, ongoing conversion, and learning. This 12-month path of accompaniment fosters growth through prayer, accountability, and authentic relationships. Each quad, with the help of the Director of Religious Education, chooses the topic they wish to study. If you are interested in joining a quad, please contact Rebecca at rzalar@our-lady.org or 715-423-125. Quads will officially begin in September.

A Minute with Jesus: The Vital Connection between the Eucharist and Confession

Part of the greatest preparation we can make to receive Jesus's Body and Blood is to experience His forgiveness and healing in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. If sin is in our hearts, there is little room for Christ. Jesus forgives us of our sins in confession, and this frees us and opens our hearts to fulfill the deepest desire of our hearts – to receive Him. Receiving Jesus strengthens faith, hope and charity, specifically with a desire to love Him, ourselves, and others.

- Let's pray this right now and every day this week: Jesus, please give me the desire to make a good confession as soon as possible.
- This week, read how St. John describes the importance of confession in 1 John 1:9.

Greetings from the Social Justice Committee:

Share your harvest: There is a small cart in the gathering area where you can share your produce. If you have extra, leave it, and if you can use it, please take it. It is one small way we can take care of each other.

Coat Collection: From mid-September to mid-October, we will be collecting gently used coats for the community. This can be men's, women's or children's coats. There should be no rips or holes, and the buttons and zippers should work so the coat can be closed. Please leave them in the bins near the entrances, and we will distribute them around the community. Thank you.

PASTORAL THOUGHTS...

“Losing God”

“Father, I have lost faith” or “I just don’t know about God anymore” are the typical phrases I hear from so many: it is a common ailment, and many seek out their priest to heal them. What I have found so fascinating, however, is not the fact that we seek counsel in these doubts, but rather that we humans typically fall into two categories with spiritual struggles. Both can look very similar on the outside, and even felt similarly interiorly, but they are fundamentally different ways of being isolated and discouraged about God.

The first group is the most obvious as to the cause of discouragement. People often “lose God” by starving. Upon investigation, it is no wonder that people are experiencing spiritual isolation: sin, lack of prayer, not going to Mass, no works of charity. This group is analogous to a man who starves to death in a full food pantry: he merely needs to open a can of soup and cook to eat. He does not even need to make a complicated recipe; but instead he slowly starves by distracting himself with other things that never feed him. Spiritual hunger is far easier to dismiss than physical hunger, and it is by far the easiest isolation from God to fall into. The life of sin and spiritual laziness naturally leads to doubts and struggles in the spiritual life regardless of life circumstances. A starving person when confronted with the great evils of this world easily sees God as someone to blame and abandon rather than someone to rely upon and draw strength from. God’s mercy in Confession and the firm resolve to practice virtue is the remedy to this group.

The second group is a bit more subtle when it comes to discouragement. Many find themselves in the position of following God’s commands very well, but struggling immensely with loneliness and feelings of “losing God.” Whereas the first group lost God by refusing to eat, this group can “lose” God by not feeling filled. Really, this is called “desolation” and it is a common spiritual occurrence, especially amongst the most spiritually mature. Famously, Mother Teresa experienced this dryness for decades when she was doing her ministry to the poor. God, in his wisdom, allows himself not to be felt in an abundant way to purify us. Here, we must be reminded of a desert. Sometimes, in our journey, we are nourished by the oasis, but other times it is dry.

The remedy here is the wisdom from St. Ignatius of Loyola with his Fifth Rule: “In time of desolation, never make a change; but to be firm and constant in the resolutions and determination in which one was the day preceding such desolation.” For those in this group, be encouraged that desolation is never permanent. Following God comes with immense crosses and sometimes deserts; but that never means we should stop following him.

God loves you,

Fr. Weller

Source & Summit is a collection of talks offered by the Augustine Institute that opens the door to understanding Vatican II's teaching regarding the source and summit of our Christian faith: the Eucharist. Each lecture reveals how the Eucharist is present throughout Scripture. With informative presentations led by Dr. Brant Pitre, Dr. Tim Gray, and Dr. Mary Healy, this series is an excellent tool for your parish's continued Eucharistic revival efforts.

A big THANK YOU to all who donated baked goods or money to the 2024 church picnic bake sale. It was a huge success thanks to your generosity.
