Mary on the Mantel for families...Are you looking for a meaningful Catholic alternative to Elf on the Shelf? Be A Heart has an alternative, Mary on the Mantel, which helps families incorporate a more meaningful Advent. Mary helps children prepare their hearts for Christmas. Each day leading up to Christmas, Mary moves around the house, nesting to prepare for her baby. She may be found scrubbing the bathroom floor, sewing a baby blanket, or visiting the midwife before making the long journey to Bethlehem. While Mary gets ready, she helps the children prepare for baby Jesus by suggesting one small act of kindness for them to do. Some days will be a good deed for a neighbor, the family, or a stranger. Other days will be to find kindness for oneself or to care for the earth.

Being Thankful

During this month when we gather with family and friends to celebrate Thanksgiving, it is a fitting time to stop and remember the many gifts we have been given. To take it one step further, it is appropriate to look at all we have as God’s gift, undeservedly given, and express our gratitude to Him for His goodness and generosity.

Take some quiet time to think back through your life and write down ten things that you want to specifically be grateful to God for this Thanksgiving. Since Eucharist means thanksgiving, returning to Mass on Thanksgiving Day is the best place to express your gratitude. Thank Jesus for all of the good gifts on your list, and most especially, for the gift of Himself to you in the Holy Eucharist. Happy Thanksgiving!

Liturgical Note: As we now bring up the gifts at Mass, the congregation should remain seated when the priest says the “Blessed are you, Lord” prayers and stand when the priest says “Pray, brethren, that my sacrifice and yours...”.

Prayer of St. Nicholas of Flüe (1417–1487)

(as referenced by Fr. Guarella in his November 9th homily)

My Lord and my God, take from me everything that distances me from you. My Lord and my God, give me everything that brings me closer to you. My Lord and my God, detach me from myself to give my all to you. Amen.

SPIRITUAL EXPERIENCES THROUGH STAINED GLASS

Recently in talking to younger children about different physical things they see in church, the stained-glass windows came up. They were intrigued to know that they were originally there to tell the story of salvation to those who were illiterate. A brief history of stained-glass windows in the Catholic Church follows, along with a depiction of our own church's biblical scenes told through stained glass.

Stained-glass windows date back to the fourth century when they were used in churches to depict biblical scenes for an illiterate population. They were used as a teaching tool and would help to inspire and encourage people through this visual way of telling the story. The use of many vibrant colors and designs became an important part of the story for it enhanced the beauty and truth of the creative world we live in.

For the Catholic population, the stained-glass windows in Catholic Churches would showcase many different biblical scenes and saints, all by following and expressing the teaching of the Faith, and a wonderful means of education and inspiration.

For Christians, light represents God's ever-giving grace and presence amongst us, and as the light flows through these windows they are a reminder to all of us, to be that light to those we meet in our daily lives.

The red color in the windows represent sacrifice, the blue represents divine love, green symbolizes growth and life, with purple indicating royalty and penance, and gold, signifying heavenly glory.

Our own windows depict the following scenes: In the gathering area by the side entrance, where we have funeral viewings, the window depicts the Raising of Lazarus. At the main entrance, we see the depiction of the Wedding Feast at Cana and the Coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. Walking into Church we see the Presentation in the Temple with the prophet Simeon holding the Christ child, and the depiction of the Finding in the Temple. On the north side of the church, you see Jesus on the large panel as the Good Shepherd, along with smaller panels showing the Baptism of Jesus, the Sermon on the Mount, and the Resurrection. On the south side, you will see the Coronation of Mary, along with the smaller panels depicting the Annunciation, the Nativity, and the Immaculate Conception as the Assumption of Mary. Just outside of the front confessional is a depiction of Jesus healing a woman of her infirmities and forgiving her sins.

There is nothing better than to walk into Church, and let your eyes take you on a spiritual journey of salvation history as depicted in these stained-glass windows. Take your children along on the journey.
