THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. - Lk 3:21-22a

I'm writing from the Music Department at the University of Mary today because I am the director of a choir that specializes in liturgical music. I am traveling around the country seeking out singers that have a special skill and devotion to sacred music so that I can award them a generous scholarship to come sing sacred music at the University of Mary. We are providing substantial scholarships to students, just like college athletes, to come to Bismarck and share their musical gifts in service to God. You may recently have seen articles and stories written on us in Aleteia, Catholic News Agency, EWTN, and the Cardinal Newman Society (project for Eucharistic Education)...or heard our music on Relevant Radio. I am accepting auditions from students until February 14. More information can be found here -> www.cappellaumary.edu

I know that there are wonderful student musicians out there that serve their hometown parishes. We'd like them to audition for Cappella, as a singer or as an organist. They can get substantial scholarships!

Baptismal Call to Discipleship

This Sunday, we honor Jesus' baptism and the beginning of His public ministry at age thirty. When John the Baptist baptized Jesus, the Holy Spirit came down in the form of a dove, and God the Father announced Jesus's place as His Son. With this, Jesus was sent out to proclaim the Gospel. But doesn't Jesus already have the Holy Spirit within Him? Jesus was conceived when his mother, Mary, was overshadowed by the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit never left Jesus. Saint Peter, in the Acts of the Apostles (Acts 10:38), makes it clear that the baptism of Jesus is Jesus' anointing. Just like Saint Peter, Jesus also views His baptism in this way. After His baptism, Jesus recalls His baptism in the River Jordan and says, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me because He has anointed me."

Jesus' anointing is a new filling with the Spirit, a new empowering of his humanity to inaugurate a specific threefold mission: the mission of Priest, Prophet, and King. Just like Jesus, we are called to be priests, prophets, and kings when we are baptized. But how do we fulfill our Baptismal call? Discipleship is ultimately the way we can fulfill our Baptismal call. Jesus, as our Master teacher, has taught us how to think, pray, and love as He does.

As disciples, we are called to strive for more than just the bare minimum. True discipleship involves more than simply attending Mass and participating in Bible study once a week. It requires cultivating a personal relationship with Jesus. The original disciples came to know, love, and follow Him even before they fully understood His true identity. When we limit ourselves to minimal engagement and lack a personal connection, our perception of the Catholic Church can become distorted. To develop a genuine relationship with Jesus, one must shift from treating Him as an aspect of life to making Him the very center of it.

You can make Him the center of your life by incorporating prayer and acts of service into your daily routine. Remember, as a disciple, you are also called to embrace the role of a missionary disciple. Being a missionary disciple is not optional; if you are not sharing the Gospel, you cannot truly consider yourself a disciple. The message of the Gospel, or "Good News," compels us to share it. Love remains unfulfilled until it is given away. Both truth and love require that we pass on what we have received to others. The Good News is straightforward: God created us for a loving relationship with Him, we lost that union through Original Sin, and Jesus restores our connection with God through His Passion, Death, and Resurrection.

Start the new year by reforming your life and reorienting your entire life around Jesus. If you want to learn more about Jesus, start with the book Jesus: The Way, The Truth, and the Life by Marcellino D'Ambrosio.
