Order of Christian Initiation for Adults

As we get closer to celebrating the Baptism of the Lord, let us recall our own Baptism. We have all received the call to go and baptize all nations. Pray for those who are considering if they, too, are ready to renounce Satan and all his works and empty promises. If there is someone you think would like to explore Baptism in the Catholic faith, ask him or her to contact Rebecca at reoffice@our-lady.org.

Cultivating your Domestic Church

Check out Restoring the Roots on top of the Children's Bookshelf in the gathering space.

The newsletter provides families with a monthly roadmap for saint days, fun family events, prayers, resources, and even recipes that can be tied into a saint's feast day. Every idea helps individuals or families easily incorporate liturgical living into their homes.

Are you in love with the faith? Do you want the best for young children? Do you have a desire to serve the church? We need you!

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Program is in need of Catechists. Help paying tuition for the CGS training is available. For more information, call Peg Klinkhammer at 734-787-4630 or Rosemary Hokamp at (715) 423-1277.

Please prayerfully consider if God is calling you to this beautiful work.

I'm writing from the Music Department at the University of Mary today because I am the director of a choir that specializes in liturgical music. I am traveling around the country seeking out singers that have a special skill and devotion to sacred music so that I can award them a generous scholarship to come sing sacred music at the University of Mary. We are providing substantial scholarships to students, just like college athletes, to come to Bismarck and share their musical gifts in service to God. You may recently have seen articles and stories written on us in Aleteia, Catholic News Agency, EWTN, and the Cardinal Newman Society (project for Eucharistic Education)...or heard our music on Relevant Radio. I am accepting auditions from students until February 14. More information can be found here -> www.cappellaumary.edu

I know that there are wonderful student musicians out there that serve their hometown parishes. We'd like them to audition for Cappella, as a singer or as an organist. They can get substantial scholarships!

PASTORAL THOUGHTS...

THE BEAUTIFUL MINISTRY OF SERVING AT MASS

For many of us cradle Catholics we remember serving at Mass at our parishes that we grew up in. Serving it seemed at the time to be just for the very young. Today we are seeing more and more the combination of younger and older servers at our Masses; and that is a beautiful thing to see.

It is a beautiful ministry and we are asking young and older alike to please take that to prayer and think about becoming a server here at Our Lady Queen of Heaven.

We are looking for more servers to help out at our Masses. It is a beautiful site to see the Father of a family, an older adult serving at one of the Masses, what a striking picture and reflection for our young Catholic children to see a grown man, maybe their own father, serving our Lord at Mass.

There are many, now young adults, who have served here at Our Lady Queen of Heaven as servers when they were younger, and we are asking for them to reflect on where they are in life and consider once again stepping forward and helping out, even if it cannot be on a consistent basis.

Serving at Mass is a beautiful ministry and we are more than happy to have a couple of training days to help alleviate those feelings, those fears of making a mistake. Please consider giving some of your time to serving, young and older alike together at the altar, where we partake in the mystery of the real presence of Christ.

If you have interest in becoming a server please contact Deacon Tom.
