Order of Christian Initiation for Adults

As we get closer to celebrating the Baptism of the Lord, let us recall our own Baptism. We have all received the call to go and baptize all nations. Pray for those who are considering if they, too, are ready to renounce Satan and all his works and empty promises. If there is someone you think would like to explore Baptism in the Catholic faith, ask him or her to contact Rebecca at reoffice@our-lady.org.

PASTORAL THOUGHTS...

What is the Biblical foundation for the Sacrament of Reconciliation?

To gain a foundational understanding of the history of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, we must explore the Scriptures and Jewish tradition. Prior to the Incarnation of Jesus, Judaism practiced rituals akin to the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The Torah and the Law of Moses established penitential practices for the Jewish people. Individual infractions of the law, whether intentional or unintentional, required rectification through specific acts of repentance, as described in the scriptures or defined by rabbis who sought to clarify the law where the Torah was ambiguous. One common means by which the Jews sought forgiveness involved offering sacrifices at the Temple in Jerusalem. For those living outside the city, reconciliation with God was pursued through alternative methods. The rabbis recommended practices such as prayer, fasting, sleeping on the ground, wearing sackcloth and ashes, and engaging in almsgiving as forms of penance.

As Savior, Jesus is central to the forgiveness of sins, which was a fundamental aspect of His earthly ministry. For instance, in Luke 9:47-48, He forgives a sinful woman, stating "Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much; but he who is forgiven little, loves little. And He said to her, "Your sins are forgiven." Similarly, in Mark 2:1-12, Luke 5:15-32, and Matthew 9:1-8, Jesus offers forgiveness to a paralytic man. These Scripture passages illuminate the significance of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. As noted, "The Lord Jesus Christ, physician of our souls and bodies, who forgave the sins of the paralytic and restored him to bodily health, has willed that His Church continue, in the power of the Holy Spirit, His work of healing and salvation, even among her own members" (CCC 1421).

Jesus Himself established each of the seven Sacraments within the Catholic Church. On the evening of His Resurrection, as the apostolic mission is set to commence, Jesus bestows upon the Apostles, through the Holy Spirit, the authority to reconcile repentant sinners with God and the Church. He declares, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." (John 20:22-23 NRSV)

Jesus conferred upon Peter the authority to make decisions that would have binding significance both on earth and in Heaven. He stated, "You are Peter, and upon this rock, I will establish my Church, and the gates of Hades shall not overcome it. I will grant you the keys to the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven" (Matthew 16:18-19 NRSV). The Catechism teaches us that "the words bind and loose mean: whomever you exclude from communion with God; whomever you receive anew into your communion, God will welcome back into His. Reconciliation with the Church is inseparable from reconciliation with God" (CCC 1445).

Please pray for our youth making their First Reconciliation this weekend.
