REFLECTION

Paul Burzynski comes as no stranger to parish liturgical life. After serving the people of God at St. Stanislaus, the Basilica of St. Josaphat, St. Martin of Tours, and St. Rita, he is grateful to serve St. Dominic Catholic Parish, as we gather around the altar to give glory to the Almighty. May God continue his work in and through us all.

John the Baptist has much been focused upon in the past several weeks in our readings at Mass. As the precursor of Christ, we heard him announcing the coming Messiah all the way back on the Second Sunday of Advent, announcing a baptism of repentance. Today, his ministry culminates as he baptizes Jesus in the Jordan. I have often wondered why the sinless Jesus, the Son of God, felt he needed to be baptized by John. Perhaps as an acceptance of the mission and work of the Father. What is that mission? As we hear in Isaiah today, "I formed you, and set you as a covenant of the people, a light for the nations, to open the eyes of the blind, to bring out prisoners from confinement, and from the dungeon, those who live in darkness." (Isaiah 42: 6—7) As God's suffering servant, Jesus, through this symbolic baptism, takes on the work of the Father, which is ultimately to be mediator of the new creation—to raise up the lowly—to forgive and deliver us from sin—to conquer evil, and in a final act of love and obedience, death.

Today is a good day to remind ourselves of our own baptism, and to renew the promises that our parents, godparents, or sponsors made for us when we became members of the church. Are we embracing the graces we received at baptism? Today is the perfect day to once again renew our baptismal commitment so that just as Jesus heard the voice of the Father, we too might revel in knowing that God says to us, "You are my beloved: with you I am well pleased." Happy Sunday, friends!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

The Baptism of the Lord

"We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ."

— Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.

800TH ANNIVERSARY OF ST. DOMINIC

BLESSING BAGS!

St. Dominic 800th Anniversary Blessing Bags

As part of our St. Dominic 800th Anniversary celebration, we will be offering a community service project that will allow us to walk in the footsteps of St. Dominic who said, "have charity, guard humility, make your treasure voluntary poverty." We will be gathering specific personal care and food items, and monetary donations to create Blessing Bags. Our goal is to make 800 Blessing Bags for the following organizations that directly serve the poor and homeless: Milwaukee Homeless Veterans, Franciscan Peacemakers, Riverwest Food Pantry, Bahkita House, Milwaukee Rescue Mission, Hebron House, and the Open Door Café. We will be sharing more information on how you can support this effort in the coming weeks.

What can you do now? Pray for our parish and the people who will be served through this project. Consider doing without something for a week or a month and set aside the money that you have saved to put toward this effort. If you have any questions or suggestions, please contact Ellen Kloth at 414.651.7744 or mangengirl@gmail.com.

Upcoming Blood Drive

St. Dominic Catholic Parish will be holding a blood drive in the Marcy Center on Thursday, January 20, from 1:30 PM to 6:30 PM. See the flyer inserted in today's bulletin or our website for details and to sign up.

Giving Tree Thank you

Thank you so much for the thoughtful gifts you sent to us. There were even instances of "surprises" that enhanced the giving. May God reward you abundantly for your generosity. Blessings on our coming New Year. Gratefully, Sisters of Trinity Woods.

Updates

During the month of December, formation classes spent time getting ready for the birth of Jesus. We began with a family night focusing on Advent and welcoming a time of prayer and preparation into our hearts and homes. Families were able to learn how to take the journey to the manger with Mary, Joseph, the shepherds, and the wise men to welcome the Newborn King to the world. There were also opportunities to read books about Advent and Christmas, make an invitation to send to someone to join them for Mass during the Advent and Christmas season, to play bingo, complete a Lego nativity activity, share prayer intentions they had for family, friends, and loved ones on a prayer board, do puzzles, learn more about Saints who have feast days during the season, and take part in a self-guided tour of the events that took place from the Annunciation to the crèche.

Class time also focused on Mary and celebrating the feast of the Immaculate Conception, and finishing out with some Christmas activities and discussions before parting for a long winter break.

We are back to the classrooms this week and are excited to be together again.

~ Child Minister, Stacey Irvine

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Hilary of Poitiers

Born a pagan, St. Hilary (c. 315 – c. 367) studied philosophy and the meaning of life, eventually making his way through the bible. He became a convert and was appointed bishop of Poitiers in 353. St. Hilary defended the Nicene Creed against a popular heresy, Arianism, which denies Christ's divinity. He was exiled but fought with his pen, zealously writing against the heresy. St. Hilary was likely the first writer of hymns in the West, his writings on the Trinity, Psalms and Gospel of Matthew survive today. ©LPI
