PADRE'S PONDERINGS

Comments from Fr. Mark

“IT’S INCONVENIENT” These two words are said many times as we try to fit different activities into a day. We race around, running errands, children to activities, work activities, racing through meals or drive-thru’s, shopping for needed items. We just try to keep up with the demands of daily life. However, these are choices we make for various reasons and they form our life. When all is said and done – we race around and all at once realize life is short. So, what did I take time for? At the end we stand with God answering for choices made. Was celebrating God too inconvenient? Was celebrating at mass, just not on the top of our things to do list? How will we answer – what I chose was godly choices and I celebrated God throughout my whole life as #1! What else would be more important? Is God going to say we were an inconvenience?

Fr. Mark
