Flame of Love

Presents

Fr. James Blount, S.O.L.T.

Flame of Love Conference & Healing Service

Sunday, February 6, 2022

St. Susanna Catholic Church

1210 E. Main Street, Plainfield, IN

Father is a powerful instrument of the Holy Spirit as evidenced by so many stories of miracles, healings and conversions. In his usual dynamic and passionate style, Fr. Blount will share the Flame of Love of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, an extraordinary grace that God is pouring out upon the world today. During the conference, he will teach us how to embrace this grace, live a vibrant Catholic life, and help Our Lady's Immaculate Heart to Triumph and change the world!

"The world of the future is being prepared...let the outpouring of my graces produce their effect in souls. All will see the results of their labors on behalf of the Flame of Love."

(The Flame of Love Diary, pp.106 & 110)

All Women are invited & welcome to join us in the parish center for prayer & discussion about the upcoming weekend readings (kids welcome!)

Faith & Friends on Friday

9:00-10:30 a.m.

Contact girlfriendsingod@saintsusanna.com
for details and reminders

I Feel good when I thank God!

Children's Collection

Envelopes are available in the pews.

Children are invited to thank God by sharing their time, talent & treasure. Treasure can be sealed in the envelope while any talent and time spent can be written on the envelope. During Offertory, youth will be invited to bring forth their envelope to place in the basket on the altar. Children participating in CLOW at the 9:15 AM Mass can walk with offertory to take their envelopes to the altar.

STEWARDSHIP

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

I Hope I Am Like Him

“Who is this Christ? Is he like you?”

Perhaps you’ve heard this story, often attributed to the life of St. Teresa of Calcutta. A sick man asked her this question, as he marveled at her tireless service to himself and others in the name of someone named Jesus Christ.

“He is nothing like me,” the saint is said to have answered. “But I hope I am like him.”

Though the authenticity of this exchange cannot be verified, its message rings perfectly true: all the value of our stewardship lies in its relativity to the one in whose name we perform it.

Consider the figure of John the Baptist — a magnificent, towering character even purely from a literary or historical perspective. A martyr who fed on wild locusts and boldly spoke truth to power — a man so great some mistook him for the Messiah.

But why is he great? Because he prepared the way. All his accomplishments and escapades mean nothing if they are taken out of the context of salvation history. He only makes sense relative to Christ — and this is exactly as he wanted it. “One worthier than I is coming,” he insists. And because of that humility and that total embrace of God’s will, he is given one of the greatest honors in the New Testament — he baptizes the Son of God.

Let’s examine our lives in the light of their relativity to Christ. How do we prepare the way? When Christ comes to us, what do we do? How do we leave ourselves open to be actors in God’s plan?
