John 14
Vs. 16-19

"I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth, which the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows it. But you know it, because it remains with you, and will be in you. I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me, because I live and you will live."

Gospel Meditation

WE ARE NEVER ABANDONED By Fr. John Muir

In my family, we can hardly speak about orphans without tears. My father was adopted as a baby. He frequently told us stories of how his parents welcomed him not just into their home but into their hearts. It was never merely a relocation or a legal transaction. It was the joy of being chosen, of receiving a family, a name, and a place where he belonged forever. Even in his later years, recalling that gift still moves him to tears of tender gratitude.

That is the kind of tenderness behind Jesus' words in today's Gospel: "I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you." (John 14:18) He is going away, but not abandoning us. Instead, he sends us the Advocate, the Holy Spirit — his own Spirit, shared with the Father — who dwells in us. Through the Spirit, Christ is present in us, and we are present in him. His Spirit gives us a home and a family.

We deepen this knowledge in the sacraments, in prayer, and in the daily life of the Church. The Spirit is the bond of belonging, the power that makes us God's sons and daughters, not spiritual orphans. And this is not a one-time event. There is always a deeper outpouring of the Spirit available to us, a fresh appropriation of the promise that we are never abandoned.

If only we could be as grateful as my dad is for his adoption, realizing that we have been adopted by God Himself. In Christ, we are never left as orphans.

Dear Lord,

Pour your goodness and grace upon the women of our community today in a special way.

For mothers: fill them with joy and blessing.

For those who have lost children: hold them in their sorrow.

For those who have hoped for children: surround them with Your love.

For those who have lost a mother: may they know Your comfort.

For those carrying difficulty on this day: bring them consolation.

Bless all women this day. Thank you for the love they bring to this world, no matter their circumstances or story. Amen.

Thanks to all our Volunteers for providing meals, resources, and time the week of April 26th - May 2nd. It was a great week and the families were very appreciative of the good food. Our next week of service will be August 9th-15th.

We can always use more volunteers, please contact me if you would like to be added to the mailing list for 2026, reach out to me at coachjayhood@gmail.com or 765-717-5540

Respectfully, Jay Hood

Barley Thyme Kitchen

1621 E. Main St.
Danville, IN

We welcome and encourage all parishioners 50 or older, their families and guests of any age to join our gathering for great food at an enjoyable, relaxing time. If you are planning to attend, please sign up on the sheet posted on the parish bulletin board by 12 noon on Monday, May 18th. This will allow us to provide the restaurant with a headcount for the evening. Please call Mary Jo Benson at 317-828-2896 for reservations, questions or cancellations.

Who can play?

Any registered parishioner who is 18 years old or older.

How do you play?

Pick up a 50/50 envelope in the back of church. Write your name and parishioner envelope number on it. Select a ministry to benefit from the parish's portion, if you wish. Place your money ($2) in the envelope and put it in the collection basket.

New subscription year starts 7-1-2026. Please have in the office prior to July 4-5 weekend. Cost for the year is $104

What ministries can be chosen?

- Religious Education Needs
- School Scholarship Fund
- St Vincent De Paul

Then what happens ?

On Monday morning, a number from all of the envelopes assigned to registered parishioners will be drawn. If the number drawn matches an envelope that was played, we have a winner who will receive 50% of the pot. The other 50% goes to the ministries.

If the number drawn does not match an envelope played, the monies roll over to the next week's pot. When the pot reaches $1,000, numbers will be drawn until we have a winner. If the pot is more than $1,000, the amount over $1,000 will roll over to the next week. The winner will receive 50% of the pot up to $500. The number drawn will be published in the bulletin the following week.

Note: This is not a donation

Mother's Day Roses

Mother's Day Roses will be available after all Masses on May 9 & 10 for our annual Respect Life Rose Sale.

Roses will come in a variety of colors, and Babies Breath and vases will also be available while supplies last. Choose a vase and roses in your Mom's favorite color for a memorable gift on her special day.

Thank you for your support and for your donation to our ministry.
