Matthew 10
Vs. 37-39

"Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it."

We welcome Father Dan Dorsey of the GLENMARY HOME MISSIONERS, who will speak at all the Masses this weekend. This special collection will provide support for Glenmary's ministry in the home missions of the United States.

Father Dan, a native of St. Louis, Missouri, was ordained to the priesthood in 1978. He is currently serving his third term as Glenmary's President. He previously ministered as pastor in Glenmary missions in Arkansas and Kentucky, as Glenmary's First Vice President, and Director of the Formation and Novitiate Programs. He enjoys gardening in his spare time.

We invite you to share your prayers and financial support for this important ministry. Thank you for your generosity.

Gospel Meditation

THE LOVE THAT ORDERS EVERY OTHER LOVE

By Fr. John Muir

I still remember the first homily I ever preached as a new deacon. It was at the seminary, and the Gospel was this one: "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me." (Matthew 10:37-38) Standing before more than 200 classmates and professors, I stumbled awkwardly through my words and realized how strange — almost insane — this teaching sounded. If anyone else said it, we would call it narcissistic or cultish.

And that is the point. I felt the weight of those words in my own heart then, as I still do today. Am I willing to live as though Christ's claim on my love is absolute? Are you?

Over the years, I've learned that the more I do, the more everything else makes sense. Family, friendships, vocation, even my very self: all of it falls into place when my love for Jesus comes first.

That is why he dares to speak this way. Our Lord is not a cult leader hungry for control. He is the Son of God, the source of life and love itself. To put him before everything else is not to lose, but to find...everything, and everyone, in him.

This week, name one thing or one person you are tempted to place before the Lord. Then consciously offer it back to him in prayer.

Who can play?

Any registered parishioner who is 18 years old or older.

How do you play?

Pick up a 50/50 envelope in the back of church. Write your name and parishioner envelope number on it. Select a ministry to benefit from the parish's portion, if you wish. Place your money ($2) in the envelope and put it in the collection basket.

New subscription year starts 7-1-2026. Please have in the office prior to July 4-5 weekend. Cost for the year is $104

What ministries can be chosen?

- Religious Education Needs
- School Scholarship Fund
- St Vincent De Paul

Then what happens ?

On Monday morning, a number from all of the envelopes assigned to registered parishioners will be drawn. If the number drawn matches an envelope that was played, we have a winner who will receive 50% of the pot. The other 50% goes to the ministries.

If the number drawn does not match an envelope played, the monies roll over to the next week's pot. When the pot reaches $1,000, numbers will be drawn until we have a winner. If the pot is more than $1,000, the amount over $1,000 will roll over to the next week. The winner will receive 50% of the pot up to $500. The number drawn will be published in the bulletin the following week.

The Archdiocese has launched a program to strengthen and expand men's ministry in parishes.

Deacon Neil, Jerry Swinehart, and George Szalony invite all men to join them in reflecting on and discussing the revised and updated edition of Falling Upward by Fr. Richard Rohr.

The five sessions will begin on Wednesday, August 12, with additional sessions on August 26, September 9, September 23, and October 7. Each session will start immediately after the 6 p.m. Mass and is expected to last one hour.

Falling Upward, the updated edition, is available from Amazon and the Center for Action and Contemplation bookstore. Please e-mail George at gszalony@msn.com if you are planning to attend.
