How to Appreciate Ordinary Time

Get to know the saints-Many saints have feast days during Ordinary Time, including John Paul II (Oct 22), Thérèse of Lisieux (Oct 1), John Bosco (Jan 31) and Kateri Tekakwitha (July 14) The entire month of May is dedicated to Our Lady, and many families and parishes crown their statues of Mary with beautiful flowers. Celebrating these feasts spreads joy throughout the year!

Mother of Dolors & St. Joseph's News

Dear Friends,

Thanks to all who stood for life at the corner of Gallatin and Kennedy last Sunday. Of about 50 participants, more than 40 were from Mother of Dolors and St. Joseph's parishes. I was certainly proud of such a high percentage and we'll work harder next year to grow our participation even more.

I received a call from Valerie Kemme from Effingham last week. She asked us to join the 40 Day Campaign for Life. We would take a day or two and volunteer to pray individually for an hour between 8 am—5 pm for the end of abortion and the protection of human life. I told her I have the best pray-ers in the diocese and it would be no problem to take two days: Saturday October 16th and Sunday October 31st.

Since we have adoration at Mother of Dolors on Saturday from 8:30 am to about 2:30 pm, I would encourage you spend your holy hour for life in front of the Blessed Sacrament. Sign up sheets are near the entrances of the churches. All slots need to be filled, but more than one person may sign up for the same times. The more praying, the better.

With gratitude and joy for the days ahead!

Fr. Seth

The Roots of the Rosary

Our Lady's promises-In her apparition to St. Dominic, Our Lady made 15 promises to those who prayed the rosary diligently. These promises include her special protection, the highest graces, and an armor against hell and sin. In addition to the indulgences attached to the rosary, Our Lady's promises can inspire us to pray it even when we feel discouraged or dryness in prayer. After all, she pledged, "You shall obtain all you ask of me by the recitation of the rosary"

World Mission Sunday

We will celebrate World Mission Sunday, Sunday, October 31. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable communities. Please keep the Pope's missions in your prayers and be generous in the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time — October 10

Wisdom 7:7-11 * Psalm 90:12-13, 14-15, 16-17 * Hebrews 4:12-13 * Mark 10:17-30

Living for Eternal Life. Let us put ourselves into the gospel story today. All of us want to "inherit eternal life." All of us strive to do what God commands, to do what is right and just. All of us strive to not let the things we have possess us. But it is hard going – impossible without reliance on God. This eternal life for which we long, this Kingdom of God in which we live now, is begun already in us and is fulfilled in completeness when we see God face-to-face for ever.

- What gets in my way of gaining eternal life – things, attitudes, behaviors?
- What mercy work will I do that lets me share what I have with someone in need?
- How will I follow Jesus more closely this week?
