Communion to the Homebound Ministry

Communion
 For the Homebound

When an illness makes it difficult or impossible to get to Church to celebrate Mass with the community, Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist in the parish will visit with the homebound person, bring them God's Word and Holy Communion, and be the continuing presence of Kenosha Racine Catholic Parishes. If you or someone you love is homebound and would like to receive Holy Communion, please call either Parish Office with a short description of the situation. We can then connect you with a Minister of Holy Communion and schedule a visit as soon as possible.

Please like KR Catholics on Facebook. And please visit our web page at KRCatholics.org.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

January 23, 2022

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God's transcendence. It may even be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God really is — the God of our salvation history or the "gods" of human constructs. Relying on our own designs and pursuits, we forget that we really are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history that reveals our fickleness and infidelity also reveals God's constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us.

As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there bringing them back to holiness and giving them the assurance of His presence. We have to allow God's Word, God's life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is one that is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one's soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue as the fulfillment of words of promise that were echoed long ago. God doesn't forget. He always comes for us.

Now it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize, deep within, the depth of friendship God offers to us it really has the power to turn sadness to joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God's Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainly of God's fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away.

SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:

Ezra read plainly from the book of the law of God, interpreting it so that all could understand what was read. (Neh 8:8)

PSALM:

Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life. (Ps 19)

SECOND READING:

For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit. (1 Cor 12:12)

GOSPEL:

He said to them, "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." (Lk 1:21)

OBSERVANCES FOR THE WEEK OF JANUARY 23, 2022

Sunday: 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time; St. Vincent, Deacon and Martyr; St. Marianne Cope, Virgin
Monday: St. Francis de Sales, Bishop and Doctor of the Church
Tuesday: The Conversion of St. Paul the Apostle
Wednesday: Sts. Timothy and Titus, Bishops
Thursday: St. Angela Merici, Virgin
Friday: St. Thomas Aquinas, Priest and Doctor of the Church
Next Sunday: 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time; Celebrate Catholic Schools Week

Saint of the Week

One of the most famous members of the Dominican Order, St. Thomas Aquinas (1225 – 1274) is well-known by many for his theological work, "The Summa Theologiae." Born in Italy, his mother wanted him to become a Benedictine and had high hopes that he would eventually become abbot of Monte Cassino, where he spent much of his youth. To change his vocation, she had him kidnapped by his brothers on his way to Paris at the age of 19. He spent two years in their captivity. Despite this, nothing could shake him from his vocation to become a Dominican priest and he was eventually released. Once free, he went to Paris and then to Cologne, where he finished his studies with Albert the Great.

His greatest contribution to the Catholic Church is his writings. The unity, harmony, and continuity of faith and reason, of revealed and natural human knowledge, encompasses his writings. The Summa Theologiae, his last and, unfortunately, uncompleted work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology.

The patron saint of teachers, theologians and students, St. Thomas Aquinas died in 1274. His life and the impact he had on the whole Church, however, remains alive today.

PLANT YOUR WORKS IN THE WORD

One of the things about Scripture is that even the smallest word and shortest phrase can be critical to the overall message. When you take a quiet moment to rest with the Word, you find how quickly the most mundane sentence can reach out and grab you, pulling you into a deeper contemplation of some truth you hadn't even considered until then.

But we often fail to act as the Israelites in the Book of Nehemiah, standing before the Water Gate "listening attentively." Whether it's at Mass during the Liturgy of the Word or at home poring over the Bible, time after time we find ourselves less mindful than we could be. Our ears accept the sounds of the words and our eyes glance over the shape of the letters.

But are we mindful — truly?

The best answer is hopefully at least sometimes. There are always tasks to be completed, problems weighing on our minds that we can't quite give over to God. We lose ourselves in these things instead of in Scripture. We "clock in" with Bible reading instead of "diving in."

We can never forget that the words of the Lord are spirit and life. They are the soil that quickens the seed of all stewardship. There is no mindfulness, no prayer, no graciousness, no gratitude or accountability or sense of commitment unless there is the Word.

So let us pray today for mindfulness, that our every action will be grounded in the law of God — giving it true spirit and life.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

IS IT RIGHT TO SUE SOMEONE? ISN'T IT A WAY OF GETTING REVENGE?

Revenge is inflicting harm for harm's sake, the idea of an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, and then some.

There is often a fine line between justice and mercy, between compensation and forgiveness. Unfortunately, things can happen to us that cause harm, suffering, and damage, regardless of people's intentions. When someone is hurt, especially in such a way that special care or treatment is required, the cost of that care needs to be paid.

In a perfect world, those with special needs, handicaps, or disabilities would find the help and care they need, including those who are injured or hurt. But justice is not always forthcoming, and people are not always fair. So, using the legal system to right a wrong is sometimes the only option.

In some cases, it is the only way that people can get the help they need and deserve. However, frivolous lawsuits, or 'fishing for money' is not only unfair, but immoral as well. The law is there to protect people and making use of it when necessary is a good thing.

WEEKLY FAITH FORMATION NEWS

Today is the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time. In today's Gospel Jesus defines his ministry. This includes bringing glad tidings to the poor, liberty to the captives, healing to the sick, freedom to the oppressed and proclaiming a year acceptable to the Lord. The Sabbath year was observed every seventh year and this tradition is a framework for God's promise of salvation.

On Sunday, January 15th, 22 of our junior high students attended a day of reflection with Spiritus Ministries. They studied scripture, played team building games, reflected on their personal relationship with Jesus and overall had fun!! Please keep all of our young people in faith formation in your prayers.

Congratulations to all of the faith formation students that participated in the Knights of Columbus poster contest. We had several first, second and third place finishers in grades one thru eight. All of the first place finishers have advanced to Milwaukee with other winners from around the Archdiocese. Job well done everyone!!

Want to dive deeper into the Sunday Readings?

A Small Group meets Thursday nights to Encounter Jesus in Scripture and we have moved our location to St. John the Baptist. You are invited to join us at 6:00 pm on the 1st and 3rd Thursdays of the month. Join us to read, explore, discuss, and share the Sunday Gospels with one another! No need to register; just join us! For more information, call/text Kathi at 414-241-0791, or email her at kathiandreoni@gmail.com

We need USHERS and LECTORS at all weekend masses. If you are interested, please see the musician after Mass.

Preparing for the Baptism of your son or daughter?

Our next Baptism Preparation Session is scheduled for Wednesday, January 26th, at 4:30 pm at St. Robert Bellarmine. Parents, contact Kathi at 414-241-0791 or kathiandreoni@gmail.com to register

Did you know KR Catholic Parishes has a prayer network?

If you are a prayer warrior, we need you! Emails are sent out monthly to our prayer network to pray for those in need. If this is the Work of Mercy for you, or if you have a special prayer request, please email Diane at didi.arnett@gmail.com

FOR YOUR MARRIAGE

St. Francis Xavier traveled the world teaching the Gospel. Some families are called to this, but all families are called to be missionaries to their own members and all whom they encounter. How can you share the Gospel today?
