IMPORTANT!

COMMUNION AND HEALTH CONCERNS
Concerns about “coronavirus” and seasonal flu raise questions for some about participation in Mass, particularly the Sign of Peace and reception of Holy Communion. These suggestions are meant to be helpful in exercising personal choice.

♦ Parishioners are reminded that, when ill, they should stay home and participate in Mass via radio or TV.

♦ You may choose to refrain from physical contact during Mass; your choice not to share in the Sign of Peace will NOT be misconstrued as an indication of rudeness; a nod of your head or a slight bow with a smile are acceptable substitutes.

♦ For those receiving Holy Communion on the tongue, please extend it sufficiently far enough so the priest/deacon/extraordinary minister can avoid accidental contact with your mouth, your teeth or tongue, resulting in the possibility of cross-contamination.

♦ While there has never been a documented case of an infectious disease being transmitted by the sharing of the Cup, if you are in church and have experienced symptoms, or may still be a little “under the weather,” you should refrain from the Cup at least until fully recovered; and receiving Holy Communion by way of self-intinction is never allowed.

Our sacristans, clergy and extraordinary ministers take proper, reverent, and sanitary precautions as they prepare the Eucharistic gifts, distribute Holy Communion, and purify sacred vessels after Masses.

From the Shared Associate Pastor (Fr. Jonathon):

On Thursday, March 19, we will celebrate the Solemnity of Saint Joseph – the spouse of the Virgin Mary and the Foster Father of Jesus. One thought on this Saint, and then, a short Litany you can pray to ask for St. Joseph to pray for you and your families.

If one were to write a book about everything that Saint Joseph said – it would be a very short book. Throughout the Gospels, Joseph never says a word. Rather, his entire life seems to be one of silence and obedience to the will of God.

It’s no secret that we live in a very noisy world. We live in a world with higher and higher levels of anxiety and depression. I am profoundly convinced that the constant pinging of our smartphones, the constant blaring of our radios, TVs, and Netflix, and the general noise of our modern society contributes to these tragic levels of anxiety and depression – especially among our young people! Perhaps, during this season of Lent, we would be wise to find more time for silence. Maybe turn off our phones once we get home for the night. Spend time chatting with our families instead of turning on the TV. Turn off the radio on the way to work. Cardinal Sarah (who is one of Pope Francis’ top advisers in the Vatican) even wrote about called The Power of Silence: Against the Dictatorship of Noise. He calls the noisiness of our society a “dictatorship”.

If you often feel stresses or anxious about the next notification to come to your phone or e-mail, perhaps we can take a note from Saint Joseph – who was silent much of his life. He doesn’t have a word to his name – and yet God provided for him and made him the foster father of Jesus. Perhaps, silence during Lent will be one of the ways God provides for you!

Now an abbreviated litany to St. Joseph with a handful of his titles:

Saint Joseph, pray for us.
Spouse of the Mother of God, pray for us.
Foster-father of Jesus, pray for us.
Head of the Holy Family, pray for us.
Model of workers, pray for us.
Example to parents, pray for us.
Solace of the afflicted, pray for us.
Hope of the sick, pray for us.
Patron of the dying, pray for us.
Terror of demons, pray for us.*
Protector of the Church, pray for us.

*Saint Joseph’s title as "terror of demons" is one of my favorites...
