FROM THE DESK OF FR. MICHAEL

Congratulations to William, who is making his First Communion this weekend.

Cancelations and updates about various parish events:

The Gloria In Excelsis children's chant camp is canceled. We had strong interest and registration from our families, but city and archdiocesan ordinances have made it impossible to actually run the camp. Sorry to all our families.

The Flea Market as a weekend event is canceled, but we do already have a number of donations stored in the rectory garage. We're going to price these items, take pictures, and if anybody would like to purchase an item, you may do so during parish office hours. More details on this in the weeks to come.

The Fall Festival is canceled. We were sad to have to cancel, but there are a number of reasons why this decision was made:

- 1) our partners at GSA are unable to fill their usual volunteer spots
- 2) it would have been too risky to ask our own volunteers who are seniors to volunteer this year
- 3) insurance costs have gone up this year and the ride company has raised the cost of ride tickets quite a bit
- 4) there is still a lot of uncertainty about whether we would even be allowed to host a festival in September and we cannot risk losing large amounts of deposit money

The $10,000 Raffle is still being held. With all of the lost revenue from canceled fundraisers, I highly encourage everyone who is able to participate in the Raffle and help make it a success. Raffle sales will begin online and through the parish office on Monday, July 20th and run through 2 pm September 18th. Beginning next weekend tickets will be available at all the entrances of church. Please save us some postage by picking up your ticket and returning it to the office (or drop it in the offertory basket). The parish and alum mailing will be mailed in a few weeks.

Prizes awarded: $10,000 First Place and $2,000 Second Place

You may purchase a whole ticket for $100 or share the cost of a ticket. Up to 10 names can be placed on a ticket for $10 a spot for a fraction of the prize.

PSR is going to begin in September. As far as I know, Catholic schools and PSR will be back in session this fall. I'll have more details soon, but as of right now we are planning on PSR on Tuesday evenings starting in September.

Cow Patty Bingo and The Quarter Auction are hopefully both going to happen. The dates of these two events and more information will be published in the upcoming bulletins and online.

Mass Explanations - The Marian Hymn after Mass

Many Catholic churches sing a hymn to Mary at the end of each Mass. There are four hymns that are rotated depending on the season - The Alma Redemptoris Mater, Regina Coeli, Salve Regina, and the Ave Regina Caelorum. We often sing the Marian hymn after the 6:30 pm Mass and have also recently begun to sing it after the 10:30 am Mass. These are really beautiful songs of devotion that I know many Catholics love to sing. Not everyone has them memorized, though, and since we don't have hymnals in the pews right now I'll put the text in the bulletin each week. This week is the Salve Regina.

Salve Regina, mater misericordiae, vita, dulcedo, et spes nostra salve. Ad te clamamus, exules filii Evae. Ad te suspiramus, gementes et flentes, in hac lacrimarum valle. Eia ergo, advocate nostra, illos tuos misericordes oculos, ad nos converte. Et Jesum, benedictum fructum ventris tui, nobis post hoc exsilium ostende. O Clemens, o pia, o dulcis virgo Maria.

The English translation, which you're probably familiar with: Hail holy queen, mother of mercy, hail our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn then most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy towards us. And after this, our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, o loving, o sweet Virgin Mary.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Fish on Friday - Question: Why do Catholics eat fish on Friday?

Answer: For centuries, meatless Fridays were the norm for Catholics throughout the world. Friday was chosen because that was the day on which Jesus died, and Christians wanted to find a way to honor that day with special prayers and acts of penance and self-denial. The practice of abstaining from meat on Fridays – under pain of sin – grew out of that desire, and it became an official part of Church teaching until the time of the Second Vatican Council.

In the 1960s, there was a shift in the Church's thinking, in large part because there was a recognition that differences in cultures and economic realities meant that eating or not eating meat had different meanings for different peoples. For example, in cultures that were largely dependent on seafood or a vegetarian diet, abstaining from meat was no sacrifice at all. While in other places, eating fish and other kinds of seafood was actually something rare and special and not a sacrifice. This was all part of a basic reflection on "why we do what we do" among the Church's pastors.

Today, Catholics throughout the world are still instructed to abstain from meat on the Fridays of Lent. The bishops of some countries, such as in England and Wales, ask Catholics to abstain from meat every Friday, continuing the older tradition. The Bishops of the United States have taken a slightly different approach, encouraging Catholics to honor Friday as a special day by abstaining from meat every Friday or by taking on some other work of penance or charity for the sake of others.

Regardless of what we choose to do, the real value in all of this is to see a reflection of Good Friday in each Friday, to remember the self-giving love of Jesus, and to honor that love through some sort of sacrifice or act of mercy. ©LPi

LIVING OUR FAITH

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Grace and sin, belief and unbelief, good and evil all exist together. While we wrestle with these two dimensions of reality inwardly, they are also witnessed in the actions and words of others. Many, all too often, beat themselves up because of their sin. We are also all too quick to pass judgment on others whom we perceive to be in error and walking down a wrong path. God does not make rash judgments, nor should we. Patience is the order of the day as is an understanding that God is ultimately the caller of the shots.

Our faith tells us that while God allows the wheat and the weeds to coexist, the wheat will always triumph. As long as we can cultivate even a little faith and a small measure of desire for God, He can produce abundant blessings and good things. Even when the weeds seem to have triumphed, there still may be a small measure of faith remaining that can be cultivated and grown. It doesn't take much! Unless a person totally allows the weeds to reign, there is always to be found at least a small measure of faith, good, light, and love. With even this small portion, God can produce abundant growth.

Admittedly, it is easy to give into the weeds, and they grow very quickly. Any gardener knows this to be true. Sometimes, the weeds even seem more attractive and vibrant. Dealing with weeds can quickly become a losing battle, and they can look healthier and grow faster than the very plants we are trying to protect. It's easy to give into them and let them win. While God will deal with all things in due time, we are responsible for keeping things in check in the short term. It is our task to keep our eyes fixed on God's presence and mercy. We are asked to avoid judgment. And, it is not our responsibility to deal with the weeds in someone else's garden, only our own. One garden is enough responsibility for anyone.

Weeds have power. We have to realize this. While they can appear attractive and healthy, they can quickly choke us off from God's presence. Our task is one of maintenance and cultivating a desire for God. Even the smallest kernel of faith can grow into something wonderful. In God's time, the eternal harvest will come, and we will no longer have to worry about the weeds. ©LPi

Medicaid Expansion MO Catholic bishops support Medicaid Expansion on August 4th Ballot

Expanding access to Medicaid will help many low-income, working Missourians get access to healthcare coverage through the Medicaid program. It will also help Catholic hospitals improve their operating margins by reducing uncompensated care. The Missouri bishops are supporting this effort. Will you join them? For more information on Medicaid, and to listen to a podcast about the Medicaid expansion ballot proposal (Amendment 2), please visit the Missouri Catholic Conference website at www.mocatholic.org

NFP Awareness Week—July 19-25, 2020

Saint Louis: "Live the truth and beauty of God's plan for married love!" is the theme of this year's Natural Family Planning Awareness Week, a national educational campaign of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) to celebrate God's vision for marriage and promote the methods of Natural Family Planning.

Natural Family Planning (NFP) is a general title for ethical, natural, safe and effective methods for both achieving and avoiding pregnancy in marriage. NFP methods teach couples how to observe and interpret the wife's signs of fertility and infertility. In the words of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, NFP methods "respect the bodies of the spouses, encourage tenderness between them and favor the education of an authentic freedom." (CCC, no. 2370)

The dates of Natural Family Planning Awareness Week are: July 19-25, 2020. These dates highlight the anniversary of the papal encyclical Humanae vitae (July 25) which articulates Catholic beliefs about human sexuality, marriage, conjugal love and responsible parenthood.

The Archdiocese of St. Louis Natural Family Planning Office joins with the U.S. bishops in highlighting the benefits of NFP as ethical methods to help married couples live God's design for their marriages.

Want to learn more about the methods of NFP offered in our diocese? See, <https://www.archstl.org/natural-family-planning> or visit the NFP section of the USCCB website at: usccb.org/nfp/what-is-nfp/index.cfm.

A schedule of local NFP classes can be viewed at: <https://www.archstl.org/natural-family-planning/methods/introductory-sessions> ; or call 314-997-7576. Learn NFP in the comfort of your home by contacting one of the NFP providers listed at: usccb.org/nfp/nfp-distance-learning.cfm.

The Catholic Church invites all the faithful to embrace God's plan for married love. Learn more about these beautiful teachings which support the use of NFP in marriage at: usccb.org/nfp/catholic-teaching.

LIVE THE LITURGY: INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Grace and sin are found together. As much as our hearts long for union with God, there is always that part of us that resists. As much as I wholeheartedly believe in God, there is a dimension of disbelief with which I also wrestle. Even though we may seek purity and integrity in all of our thoughts, words, and deeds, there is also the path toward weakness and sin that we find ourselves traversing. Just as weeds can easily overtake the best of gardens, so too can weakness and sin overtake and overwhelm a person. The call is to realize the power the weeds of sin have to choke us off from God's presence. While God allows the wheat and the weeds to exist together, we must keep our eyes fixed on God's mercy and forgiveness and resist the death that comes from giving way to sin and evil. In God's time, the eternal harvest will come, and we will no longer have to worry about the weeds. For now, we must be vigilant and regularly seek the assistance of the Master Gardener.

A PRAYER BEFORE HOLY MASS: Heavenly Father,

I, Your unworthy servant, come to worship You in this Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. By Your grace, kindly help me to listen attentively, pray devoutly, and receive worthily the Sacred Body and Blood of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. May Your Holy Spirit open the eyes of my heart to perceive more fully the great Mystery that takes place on the sacred altar. At this Holy Mass, I wish to pray in particular for the following intentions: (here name them). Amen

LITURGICAL LIFE

RESPONDING to the Call

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP
RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
Do What Needs to Be Done

A friend recently confided in me that although he prayed frequently each day and was involved heavily in his parish, he did not sense much fruit coming from it all and was left feeling unsatisfied. I assured him he was not alone. I told him of a deceased pastor of mine who had spoken frequently about being in this type of situation. Even as a priest, he knew all too well of how we can feel like we are simply going through the motions. It is precisely at those times that continuing to pray and practicing good stewardship is most important, because it would be easier to simply take a break and risk never coming back. He liked to say, "Do the drill," meaning just do what needs to be done.

We are all called to be mature disciples who answer the call of Jesus Christ regardless of the cost. We cannot choose when and where the call will come. We cannot schedule our stewardship in a way that is always most convenient for us. Even when the fruits of our faithful efforts seem hidden from us, we hold to the promise that we are never called to give of ourselves for nothing. God is working through us and in us. No matter how dry the land may seem, seeds are being planted to yield a harvest greater than we can ever realize. Stay strong and do the drill!

ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITY

We are in the process of updating our annual Guide Book & Directory for the church. This book will contain everything pertinent to our church: the various ministries, organizations, committees, activities, functions and events plus a complete directory of all members. This book is being provided and direct-mailed to each family at no cost to our church, and it is again being subsidized by local businesses that advertise. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the Church Office.

Recent survey results by Guide Book Publishing show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Guide Book & Directory advertiser over a non-advertiser. It "will pay" to advertise in our new Guide Book & Directory.
