Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory.

Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

1st Reading Sir 3:2-6, 12-14

God sets a father in honor over his children; a mother's authority he confirms over her sons. Whoever honors his father atones for sins and preserves himself from them. When he prays, he is heard; he stores up riches who reveres his mother. Whoever honors his father is gladdened by children, and, when he prays, is heard. Whoever reveres his father will live a long life; he who obeys his father brings comfort to his mother. My son, take care of your father when he is old; grieve him not as long as he lives. Even if his mind fail, be considerate of him; revile him not all the days of his life; kindness to a father will not be forgotten, firmly planted against the debt of your sins—a house raised in justice to you.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 128:1-2, 3, 4-5.

R. Blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways.

2nd Reading Col 3:12-17

Brothers and sisters: Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if one has a grievance against another; as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do. And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection. And let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Gospel Lk 2:41-52

Each year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, and when he was twelve years old, they went up according to festival custom. After they had completed its days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. Thinking that he was in the caravan, they journeyed for a day and looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances, but not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him. After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. When his parents saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety." And he said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand what he said to them. He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

[bow]

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Stewardship Thought for the Week

The first reading today provides a challenging blueprint for the good stewardship of our family relationships. How do I measure up?

Family Matters

That every parent would be strengthened by God to protect and provide for their family in all the challenges they face, we pray to the Lord:

From the Desk of Fr. Austin Wilker

(to contact Fr. Austin email dbq125@dbqarch.org)

Merry Christmas! It truly is the most wonderful time of the year. As a child I remember waking up extra early on Christmas morning. I'd run down the hallway and make my way to the living room to the Christmas tree to see what Santa had left me. My brother and I would be the first up and we would have to wait for what seemed like hours for the others to wake up. Of course my brother and I had to rummage through the presents to see which ones were for me and gently shake each one to try and guess what might be inside.

During this time of year when we celebrate the birth of our Savior, I would like to encourage everyone to find a way to make this time of year extra special. Visit that neighbor whom we haven't seen in months, call the relatives who weren't able to make it home for the holidays, spend some time with someone who has lost a spouse this year, write a note of encouragement, volunteer. It isn't the presents that make this time of year so wonderful, it is the relationships we nurture with those we love, including God.

I also wanted to say a huge thank you to all who helped decorate our churches to be ready for Christmas. We are so blessed in our three parishes to be able to celebrate in such beauty.

Finally, I just wanted to invite you to come next week to our Masses for the Holy Day "Mary Mother of God". We have a vigil Mass on New Year's Eve - Friday Dec. 31st at 6pm at Sacred Heart and a Mass on New Year's Day - Saturday Jan. 1st at 9am at St. Josephs.

Merry Christmas Everyone!!

SACRED HEART CASH RAFFLE

Winners and results for the cash raffle will reported at a later date due to early bulletin deadlines.
We greatly appreciate your support!

If there are any homebound who would like to receive Communion, please call the parish office.

ATTENTION: The parish is looking for several people to volunteer to drive some of our elderly to and from doctor's appointments. This would be outside of Maquoketa as some of our people don't drive outside of town, usually Dubuque or Davenport. Please call the parish office if you are able to help our parishioners. The more volunteers, the easier the load. Thank you!

NCYC Update: Thank you so much for your prayers and support! Over the next several weeks, we will be sharing individual participant reflections of the trip from all 3 parishes in the bulletin.
Grace Hingtgen-- 10th grader at Saint Lawrence parish: NCYC was a very great experience, and I had a lot of fun learning more about my faith and got to meet a lot of people.

Tate Martin -- 9th grader at Sacred Heart parish: It was a good experience. I didn't really like the rap songs though.
