Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory.

Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

1st Reading Is 42:1-4, 6-7

Thus says the LORD: Here is my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one with whom I am pleased, upon whom I have put my spirit; he shall bring forth justice to the nations, not crying out, not shouting, not making his voice heard in the street a bruised reed he shall not break, and a smoldering wick he shall not quench, until he establishes justice on the earth; the coastlands will wait for his teaching.

I, the LORD, have called you for the victory of justice, I have grasped you by the hand; I formed you, and set you as a covenant of the people, a light for the nations, to open the eyes of the blind, to bring out prisoners from confinement, and from the dungeon, those who live in darkness.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 29:1-2, 3-4, 3, 9-10

R. The Lord will bless his people with peace.

2nd Reading Acts 10:34-38

Peter proceeded to speak to those gathered in the house of Cornelius, saying: "In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him. You know the word that he sent to the Israelites as he proclaimed peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all, what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him."

Gospel Lk 3:15-16, 21-22

The people were filled with expectation, and all were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ. John answered them all, saying, "I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire."

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

[bow]

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

OUR SYMPATHY to the family and friends of James Driscoll who passed away on December 24th. May he be welcomed into everlasting life!

CONGRATULATIONS to Denver and Brook Hudriik on the baptism of their daughter, Mabel, on December 26th. Welcome to God's family!

POINSETTIAS: The Christmas season officially ends with the baptism of the Lord on Sunday, Jan. 9th. If you donated a poinsettia, you may take one home after Mass today. Or we will continue to use them for as long as they last, thank you!

NCYC 2021: "I am so glad I went to NCYC. NCYC has bettered my faith with God, I got to meet so many new people and make some friends. I hope I can help others with a few things I learned. I can't wait to go again in a few years!"

IN NEED OF CANTORS- anyone willing to help lead the congregation in song, please contact the church office or Deb Bredekamp. You would not be expected to sing solo until or if you are comfortable- a cantor will assist you! Please consider this essential ministry! "He who sings in church prays twice!"

For Your Marriage

"He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire" (Luke 3:16). Baptism includes symbols such as water, candles, and white robes that point to a deeper commitment of faith. Ask your beloved what key element of the Catholic faith is meaningful for him/her.

Stewardship Thought for the Week

Jesus, whom God called "my beloved Son," is also the "servant" of whom Isaiah speaks in the first reading. We who are baptized in Christ must follow His example and use our time and resources in the service of God and neighbor.

Family Matters

That married persons may be faithful to their commitment to one another, and faithful to their Christian baptismal commitment to share the message of the gospel, we pray to the Lord:

From the Desk of Fr. Austin Wilker

(to contact Fr. Austin email dbq125@dbqarch.org)

Today we celebrate the Baptism of our Lord. Baptism is the first sacrament that we receive as Catholics and it opens us to God's grace. I would encourage you all to pray for those who have been baptized this past year, there have been quite a few. Pray that they and their families continue to practice their faith.

In other news you might have seen a shadow across my face. Catholic Schools Week is from January 30th through Feb. 5th and like previous years I am growing my beard out so the kids can decide what to do with it at the end of that week. If you remember previous years have been either hearts, a goatee, and even a monkey tail so who knows what the kids will decide this year.

Finally, I just wanted to mention I'll be gone next week. I'm taking a little time off to spend some time with family. This year with the Christmas schedule I wasn't able to get back home to see my parents or grandparents so I'm going to go and be with them back in northeast Iowa. In case of emergency the regular emergency number will still work. Again, know of my prayers.

A HUGE THANK YOU to everyone who supported this fundraiser! We made a profit of nearly $18,000!

ATTENTION: The parish is looking for several people to volunteer to drive some of our elderly to and from doctor's appointments. This would be outside of Maquoketa as some of our people don't drive outside of town, usually Dubuque or Davenport. Please call the parish office if you are able to help our parishioners. The more volunteers, the easier the load. Thank you!

NCYC Update: Thank you so much for your prayers and support! Over the next several weeks, we will be sharing individual participant reflections of the trip from all 3 parishes in the bulletin.

Pryce Schueller, 9th grader from Sacred Heart parish: NCYC for me was a ball. It was so fun, and it helped me learn more about my faith. In the future, I will go again, and in the future I will go to church more.
