Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory.

Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

1st Reading Is 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not be silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her vindication shines forth like the dawn and her victory like a burning torch. Nations shall behold your vindication, and all the kings your glory; you shall be called by a new name pronounced by the mouth of the LORD. You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the LORD, a royal diadem held by your God. No more shall people call you "Forsaken" or your land "Desolate" but you shall be called "My Delight" and your land "Espoused." For the LORD delights in you and makes your land his spouse. As a young man marries a virgin, your Builder shall marry you; and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 96:1-2, 2-3, 7-8, 9-10

R. Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.

2nd Reading 1 Cor 12:4-11

Brothers and sisters: There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. To one is given through the Spirit the expression of wisdom; to another, the expression of knowledge according to the same Spirit; to another, faith by the same Spirit; to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit; to another, mighty deeds; to another, prophecy; to another, discernment of spirits; to another, varieties of tongues; to another, interpretation of tongues. But one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.

Gospel Jn 2:1-11

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from — although the servers who had drawn the water knew — the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

[bow]

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Stewardship Thought for the Week

In today's second reading, St. Paul tells the Corinthians (and us) that all of our gifts are from God and that they are given, not for ourselves alone, but for the common good. But the generosity of God knows no limits - the miracle at Cana reminds us that whenever we faithfully do as God asks, He can change our gifts of water into wine!

Family Matters

That married couples continue to respond to one another with love and self-giving, that they might one day share forever at the heavenly wedding banquet God has prepared, we pray to the Lord:

From the Desk of Fr. Austin Wilker

(to contact Fr. Austin email dbq125@dbqarch.org)

I'm currently taking some time off as I write this and spending some time with family. So I guess I find myself thinking quite a bit about family and how important they are to me and to all of us. This past Christmas I wasn't able to get home and while it is a difficulty (me not being as present to them) my family and I have learned how to face it by spending time together at different moments.

I realized this Christmas that I've been here for 3 Christmas seasons already - the time has gone fast. I realize every year I feel more and more blessed to be here and feel more apart of your lives and the beautiful communities here in Jackson County. I can not say it enough and I don't say it enough - THANK YOU!!!!

I am blessed to be here and blessed to be your pastor. As this year starts I approach my 5 year anniversary in May. While I lose my title as a newly ordained in a few short months I will never fully know everything. Thank you for your patience that you have had for a young, inexperienced, unsure, at times nervous priest. You have helped me grow into who I am today. I'm not perfect but I will promise to continue to learn and grow.

I know this may sound like a goodbye letter but believe me it's not my intent :) (God willing and Archbishop willing that will be many - many years away) I just was with my family and realize that I truly see you all as family as well and wanted to thank you for all your love and support not only this past Christmas but these past 3 and a half years. I can't say Merry Christmas anymore but I wish you a blessed new year!

This would be outside of Maquoketa as some of our people don't drive outside of town, usually Dubuque or Davenport. Please call the parish office if you are able to help our parishioners. The more volunteers, the easier the load. Thank you!

NCYC Update: Thank you so much for your prayers and support! Over the next several weeks, we will be sharing individual participant reflections of the trip from all 3 parishes in the bulletin.

**Jayden Koos, 11th grader from Sacred Heart parish: I had fun and learned a lot. It helped me come closer to God.
