Pastor's Message

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate Holy Trinity Sunday. As we send Fr. Taylor off this weekend and say goodbye, we thank him for his humble and dedicated service to our parish. It truly is appropriate that his last weekend here with us is Trinity Sunday. We will always remember how he explained the Holy Trinity by his juggling. Fr. Taylor will be truly missed. May God bless him each day as he heads to Rock Island to help serve the people of St. Pius Parish until August 1st. Then after that assignment to enjoy Senior Status.

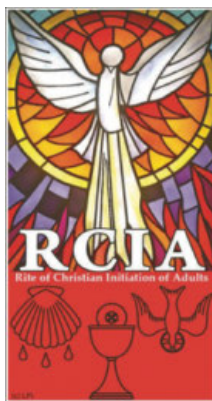

We also say goodbye to Fr. Six. We thank him for his two months of service to our Parish. In his short time with us he was able to get to know our wonderful parish and was able to get to spend time in our school. We send our blessing with him as he serves the Diocese in Marseilles and Grand Ridge.

Next Sunday we will be celebrating the Solemnity of Corpus Christi. We rejoice in the gift we receive in Jesus' Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity. He is the source and summit of our life. The Eucharist gives us strength each day to know His will and follow Him faithfully. Next week after the 11:00am Mass we will have a Eucharistic Procession outside (weather permitting). I will need servers to help with the procession. If you are interested in helping, please contact me.

I want to thank all of the volunteers who helped with taking care of our grounds around the church and rectory. I truly appreciate them using their time, talent, and treasure to beautify our grounds. Thank you for fulfilling your Vocare promise.

In Christ,
Fr. Steve

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

We often hear, in conversations about poverty, “Why don’t they just pull themselves up by their bootstraps like we did?” Sometimes the answer is that they don’t have “boots”. Many of the people that call us for help have a mental or emotional disability that causes them to not be able to function at the same level as others. While these disabilities aren’t always easily recognizable (as a physical disability is), they can cause great disfunction that doesn’t make it easy for them to hold a job.

We recently met with a very nice man whose Ameren service had been disconnected for non-payment. He had disability income of about $700/month, lived in a subsidized housing complex and had very few monthly payments to manage. While his income didn’t allow for many frills, he had sufficient income to pay necessary bills and have a bit of discretionary income left over. He shared that he often used that “discretionary income” to help others who lived in his building. He should have been able to pay his Ameren every month to avoid disconnection. In talking with him for an hour though, it became apparent that his mind could not focus and stay focused. He would start to answer a question and before he finished the answer, he would be talking about something else. This happened time and time again during our conversation with him. Eventually we began to understand that he meant to pay the Ameren bill, but he had always forgotten. In order to help him focus, we kept coming back to the amount we felt he could pay in order for him to have some “skin in the game”. It took several times asking him what we wanted him to pay before he was able to remember. It became apparent that this inability to focus would make it very difficult for him to hold a job and/or function well in managing his finances. We suggested that he assign a payee who would have the responsibility of making sure the bills were paid each month. He was open to the idea but, of course, that will only happen if he remembers to do so and is able to follow through.

As always, thank you for your prayers, your donations to our pantry and your financial donations that allow us the privilege of meeting and visiting with those in need right in their homes. We are grateful!

OBSERVANCES FOR THE WEEK OF JUNE 12, 2022

Sunday: The Most Holy Trinity
Tuesday: Flag Day
Next Sunday: The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ; St. Romuald, Abbot; Father's Day

Saint of the Week

Saint Germaine was born in Pibrac, France in 1579 to poor parents. Her story is a heart wrenching one. She was born with a deformed right arm and hand, and her mother died when she was an infant. Her father remarried, but her stepmother brutally abused and neglected her.

As a child Germaine suffered from scrofula, a disfiguring form of tuberculosis which causes swelling and lesions on the side of the neck. Already sick, abused, and starving, she was forced to sleep in barn with sheep she tended.

Despite everything, Germaine lived each day tending her flock with joy and in prayer. Mary and Jesus became her friends. She shared what little she had and taught the children of the village about God's love. A rosary made of string knots was her constant companion. She attended Mass every day, leaving her sheep in care of guardian angels. Her flock was never attacked by wolves and never wandered. Some claimed to see the waters of the flooded river part so she could get to Mass.

She is often portrayed with an apron full of flowers because one winter day her stepmother accused her of stealing bread from the house and hiding it her apron. But when she was seized and forced to open the apron an abundance of spring flowers tumbled forth. It was this incident that compelled the villagers and even her parents to recognize her holiness. Germaine died at 22, her poor body was found by her father, in the barn where she slept. She was buried in the village church. More than forty years later, her body was accidentally exhumed and found to be incorrupt. She was canonized by Pope Pius IX in 1867 and inscribed into the canon of virgins.
