They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. - Mt 2:10-11

THANK YOU

A sincere thank you to everyone who contributed gifts or made a donation for The Sharing Tree. This year we helped 39 families (106 children) with gifts of clothing, toys, gift cards, laundry/cleaning supplies and a box of food (from Thanksgiving food collection). Twenty-four baby gifts were given to Mary's Inn Maternity Home and 40 gift bags were delivered to nursing homes. Your generosity overwhelms the families we help and they truly appreciate it.

St. Vincent de Paul Society

DEAR PARISHIONERS,

We gather on the feast of Epiphany. In other words, it is the feast of the Manifestation of God. "Manifestation" means to "show plainly" and "reflect authenticity." In the scriptures we read that God is made manifest to the whole world and not just Jewish Israel, as the magi, who traverse from afar, represent foreigners or gentiles that are being attracted to the Christ Child. These magi came bearing gifts to the newborn Savior. Scriptures tell us that these three gifts were gold, frankincense and myrrh.

Outside of that, the scriptures do not tell us much about the magi. Legends and traditions fill in the rest. Through legend and tradition, we know that these were three magi who became otherwise known as wise men or kings. Through legend and tradition, we know their names are Caspar, Melchior Balthasar. Through legend and tradition, we have gained a personal description of each and distinguished the gift which each of them gave to Jesus.

Melchior was an old man with gray hair and a long beard. It was he who brought the gift of gold. Caspar was the young and beardless man. It was he who brought the gift of frankincense. Balthasar was dark skinned with a new beard. It was he who brought the gift of myrrh.

It is legend and tradition that have really colored in what cannot be actually verified through evidence of the written word. These are sweet and lovely stories but when you look at them with a critical eye and seek what is truly authentic you are left without identity, without description, without number and name. The only authenticity belongs to the gifts presented before Jesus.

Epiphany is the origin of gift giving at Christmas time. In this context, we give witness to a gift exchange. We are made very conscious of the gifts presented to Jesus but we must be mindful of the greatest gift that God presents to the Magi and those they represent, the whole world. This is the gift of his beloved Son, the newborn savior.

As we look upon this gift exchange it is important that we look deeply into the significance of the gifts given. On God's behalf, God has given us His everything. This is an expression of God's great love for us and God's willingness to become one with us so that we may be saved.

On our behalf, the wise men presented gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.

Gold is a gift for a king. "Hark, the herald angels sing glory to the newborn king." We do well to remember that Jesus Christ is king. We can never meet Jesus on a level of equality. We must always meet Jesus on terms of complete humility and submission. Before we can be friends with Christ, we must submit to Christ and the authority He bears over our lives.

Frankincense is a gift for a priest. Frankincense, like incense is used for purposes of worship and sacrifice. Priests are mediators between God and the people. Jesus is known as the High Priest. He opened the way to God; he made it possible for us to enter into the very presence of God.

Myrrh is the gift for one who is to die. Myrrh was used to perfume the bodies of the dead. Jesus came into the world to live for us and to die for us. He came to give his life for us so that, in the end, we may have life.

This gift exchange is very telling of God's desire to bring the whole world into communion with Him through His Son, Jesus Christ. And, although God gives us His Son as an expression of unconditional love, there are some subtle and important expectations that we are obliged to follow. Submission to His Son - Christ the King; Direction from His Son - Christ the High Priest; and commitment to His Son - Christ the Redeemer.

As a family, most likely you gathered for Christmas and celebrated that day together. Hopefully you came to Mass, had a big meal and participated in a gift exchange with your loved ones. Even though those gifts are given with no strings attached, there does exist a subtle and important expectation that you acknowledge the gifts you have received by a personal word of Thanks, a written note of appreciation or perhaps by offering a gift in return.

As a people of faith gathered as Church, we are to acknowledge the gift of Jesus presented to us. We are expected or obliged to offer words and actions of "Thanks" to God. In a sense, we are also expected or obliged to offer a gift in return. What could that be? What possible, genuine and authentic gift could we give to God in appreciation for the gift of His Son?

If we took the place of the wise men what would we offer in our coffer? It seems as though the gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh are not good enough anymore. And, it appears that the gifts of a share of our time, talent and treasure are not as sufficient as we would like. What then, shall we offer as an appropriate and acceptable gift to our God?

That, my friends, is a question of Vocation. We are all called to give our lives over to God in a manner of love and service. The gift that we should give the Lord is the fullness of our hearts. Are you willing to give as much as you have received? Will you open your heart to reveal yourself as gift in return? Are you willing to offer your life in service and love?

God's blessings to all of you.

Fr. Phil Gibbs, Pastor
