4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

“My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish.” - Jn 10:27-28b

4th Sunday of Easter

We all face obstacles in life. Perhaps it's a lost job, the death of a loved one, a sudden accident that places an unexpected dent in our finances. Sometimes the challenges are of our own making. Perhaps we've developed patterns of sin in our personal lives or our family relationships. We've all felt the jolting shock of, "This is all my fault." How do these things affect our relationship with God? Or, perhaps more poignantly, how do we now view God's relationship to us?

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus' words to us are encouraging ones. "No one can take them out of my hand." Did you catch that? In case you didn't, Jesus reemphasizes the point again a few verses later. "My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father's hand." God's grip of providential care and mercy is so strong that nothing can separate us. We might think things take us out of God's hand - life circumstances, tragedy, our lukewarm attitudes towards faith - but Jesus tells us otherwise. Nothing, no one, can take us out of the Father's hand, and we can't take ourselves out! We can't remove ourselves from Him, not entirely. Even when grievous sin hardens us to grace, His love is still sustaining us in existence. And His mercy is always awaiting our repentance.

"My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish." This Sunday, let us heed the voice of the Good Shepherd. Whatever we feel might take us from God's hand, we can turn back to Him. God is always inviting us to follow Him and to trust in His care and be sustained by His hand.

Dear Family at St. Mary of the Angels Parish,

A HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY TO ALL!

In the Gospel today, Jesus compares Himself to a shepherd protecting His sheep, giving His disciples this wonderful image!

Today, we honor all types of Mothers who have loved us, protected us, and held us, those who have treated us with the tender loving care of the Good Shepherd. Let us give thanks today for ALL our Mothers, living and deceased.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Do I try to hear Jesus' voice in those I encounter? Through whom is Jesus speaking to me?

To honor our Blessed Mother Mary, let us pray and promote the daily recitation (especially with families) of the most Holy Rosary.

Easter Blessings,

Fr. Tony and Fr. Ponciano

THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING YOUR PARISH; every contribution helps, no matter the amount!

Paul and Barnabas encountered both violent rejection and joyful acceptance of the message that they preached. We, too, may meet with mixed reactions when we use our gifts in the service of God. But, the Gospel assures us, the reward for those who follow faithfully is eternal life.

Rosary

A reminder that the Rosary is prayed 20 minutes BEFORE the weekend Masses during the month of May!

Come hear about and see pictures regarding Deacon Paul Umentum's trip to the Dominican Republic on Sunday, May 19th in St. Clare Hall after the 9 am Liturgy. (it's also Donut Sunday!)
