MISSION

Grounded in Christ, in the Franciscan Tradition

13th Sunday
 IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus answered him, "Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head." And to another he said, "Follow me." But he replied, "Lord, let me go first and bury my father." But he answered him, "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God."

- Lk 9:58-60

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

And to another he said, "Follow me." In every moment of every day, in every circumstance and experience, God is calling us. We can easily get distracted and not hear it or simply ignore it, pretending it wasn't even heard. When we do hear it and favorably respond, there are some conditions that must be met.

Jesus makes it clear that once we say yes to his invitation, we must stay focused and forge ahead. We cannot keep looking behind or worry about unfinished business. There are some tasks, and discipleship is one, that require our full devotion.

There are many "masters" vying for our attention. We need something or someone to give us direction. Human nature requires it. Our motives and actions reveal what has our allegiance. It is tempting to give ourselves to masters that lure us with intriguing promises. When given the choice between a "master" that promises worldly success, abundant wealth, status, privilege, and security versus a "master" that asks for self-sacrifice, hardship, suffering, ridicule, and death, to whom do we go? While the promise of immediate pleasure is enticing, there is always a catch. For all that secular masters can promise, they always keep us looking behind, checking on ourselves, second guessing choices, calculating options, and being slaves to excessive worry. Our guard can never come down. Only one master really promises life: Jesus Christ. Hearing his call, we either trust him or we don't.

Saying yes to following Christ does come with a risk. But it also comes with the brightness of future hopes and dreams. There is no need to keep looking behind. Sins are forgiven and regrets serve no effective purpose. God is not there. He's moved beyond all that stuff. God is in the today and the tomorrow and what he can continually do with our daily affirmation to follow Him. All we need to do is be obedient. St. Gianna Molla is credited with saying, "The stillness of prayer is the most essential condition for fruitful action. Before all else, the disciple kneels down." Begin with prayer. We will not only hear God's call but find the courage to trust that He will guide us where we need to be. God uses us in the most ordinary of ways through the simple daily expression of our lives.

June Intentions of the Pope and the Bishop

Pope Francis' Intention

We pray for Christian families around the world; may they embody and experience unconditional love and advance in holiness in their daily lives.

Bishop Ricken's Intention

That our encounter with Jesus Christ in the Most Blessed Sacrament may transform our hearts to greater union with Him and the Church and that our journey into Eucharistic Revival renew our entire Diocese.

Attention Summer Office Hours

Effective June 20th

Monday—Wednesday 8 am--Noon

Thursday 12-3 pm

St. Ann Fraternity of The Secular Franciscans

Invites all parishioners to Bible Study, Prayer and Reflection every third Saturday at 10:00 am. It began June 18th. This gathering will be in the Adele Brice room off the school Cass street entrance. This Bible study will concentrate on the upcoming Sunday readings and will aid us to grow in faith and love in the Liturgy of the word. The next meeting will be July 16th.

Moving ? Changes?
