MISSION

Grounded in Christ, in the Franciscan Tradition

29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.” - Mk 10:43-45

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

From a young age, I loved winning at sports. I confess that winning was a bit of an addiction. It was probably coming from a deep desire for attention and affirmation from others. Nevertheless, it was a driving motivation for me. Baseball, soccer, track, table tennis, and whatever else I could find was a chance to win. Competition was my obsession.

Another John, and his brother James, demonstrate a kind of wildly competitive obsession when they dare to say to Jesus: “Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory” (Mark 10:37). Their audacity arouses an indignant reaction from the other apostles, who are clearly raw that these two are out to win the highest spots.

How does Jesus respond to us in our desires for greatness? The same way he does to James and John. He does not criticize them for their desire for glory. But he does highlight their ignorance (“you do not know what you are asking.”). Then he invites them to be champions of true greatness: by drinking not the cup of worldly victory, but his cup of self-giving suffering love, to be the “slave of all.” The true winners are slaves of love. This week, dare to tell Jesus what your ambitions truly are. Hear him call you to an even greater victory.

—Father John Muir

All discipleship involves mission. The bishops' pastoral letter on stewardship reminds us, "Every member of the Church is called to evangelize, and the practice of authentic Christian stewardship inevitably leads to evangelization."

Most high, glorious God, Enlighten the darkness of my heart, and give me true faith, certain hope and perfect charity, sense and knowledge, Lord, that I may carry out your holy and true command.

October Intentions of the Pope and the Bishop

Pope Francis' Intention

FOR A SHARED MISSION: We pray that the Church continue to sustain in all ways a Synodal lifestyle, as a sign of co-responsibility, promoting the participation, the communion and the mission shared among priests, religious and lay people.

Bishop Ricken's Intention

FOR THE INTERCESSION OF OUR LADY OF CHAMPION: May our faith be strengthened by our Lady's message to "Go and fear nothing", as we live our lives worthy of our calling in Christ.

Attention Veterans

October 22—We will care for the garden from 10:00-11:00 am. There will be free vegetables available for you to take home.

A single act of pure love pleases me more than a thousand imperfect prayers.

Fall Fest

Fall Fest is November 10th!

- ◆ We are looking for Scrip cards for baskets and grab bags. Please purchase the cards and bring them to the Parish Office or put them in an envelope and place in the collection basket.
- ◆ Raffle tickets are here. Please pick up your envelope in the back of church and purchase or sell your tickets. Additional tickets are available if you need more.
- ◆ Please fill out the Fall Fest dinner/entertainment slip and return it with your payment.
- ◆ Please consider purchasing a placemat ad for your business or "in memory" of a loved one.

We thank you for all your support and prayers. Fundraising Team

Education Endowment Fund Grant Requests

A final reminder that request forms are available in the Parish Office during regular business hours and the deadline for submitting requests is Friday, October 25.

"Clear It Out" Sales

Thank you to everyone for your support of our "Clear it out" Sales over the past few Saturday mornings. We still have a few items left that Restore will be looking at. Thank you for all your hard work!! Great Team Effort!!!

The Fundraising Committee

Trunk or Treat

This Saturday, October 26th, is the first annual "Trunk or Treat" being held in the school parking lot from 2:00-4:00 pm. This event, organized by the tenants of our school building, is a safe and fun alternative to Halloween. Kids go "trick or treating" at each vehicle; each decorated in a theme. Games and activities round out the afternoon.

Hope to see you there!

October is Mission Month

On behalf of the missionary men and women serving in over 1,150 mission territories, we extend our heartfelt gratitude for your generous support on World Mission Sunday. Your contributions ensure that the Gospel continues to spread, bringing hope, love, and salvation to those in need.

This year's theme "Go and invite everyone to the banquet," reminds us of our universal call to evangelize and support our brothers and sisters around the world. Your generosity helps build churches, train clergy, and provide essential services in mission territories. Thank you for being part of this vital mission and for making a lasting impact on the global Church.
