OCTOBER 10, 2021 28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

ST. ANN GUILD RAFFLE:

Items you wish to donate for the Guild Fall Raffle will need to be delivered to St. Ann by Thursday, October 14, so that we can start selling raffle tickets the weekend of October 16 and 17. Items may be left on the table near the office, or in the office anytime the church is open. Anyone can donate items to the Raffle!

Raffle winners will be drawn following the 10:30 a.m. Mass on October 24.

BAKE SALE:

The Fall Bake Sale will be held October 23-24 at all Masses. Please bring your baked goods to Mass with you on this weekend. This fund-raiser is the largest held by the Guild throughout the year, and profits are used to buy "Breaking Bread" and "Today's Missal" books used at Masses at St. Ann. Other monetary uses include the purchase and maintenance of altar linens and supplies, scheduling monthly Masses for deceased members of the Guild, and other items as needed by Fr. Wolf and the parish.

28th SUNDAY in ordinary time

Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God." - Mk 10:27

ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL: The ADA is an opportunity for us to be good stewards of God's gifts as we share with other Catholics our treasure and our blessings and show our love for one another. The ADA gives us the opportunity to act together as a family of faith and support the programs and services no single individual or parish can offer by themselves. Your gift is important. Every gift, regardless of size, is vital to the success of the Appeal.

PARISH HAPPENINGS

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

IF HEAVEN WERE LIKE HARVARD:

There's no getting around it: life on earth can seem easier if you're rich. Most of the bodily and material needs a person could have are fulfilled if you've got a little bit of money behind you. So why doesn't this same theory apply to entering the kingdom of Heaven? Why isn't Heaven like an Ivy League school, where a connection and a hasty tuition check might open a lot of doors?

When you think about it, the virtues required to enter Heaven — things like charity and justice and courage — should be even closer within the grasp of those who never had to worry about where their food is coming from. In theory, your capacity for good works should only increase with the resources at your disposal.

The same is true for stewardship potential. Let's say I've got a lot of talent. Maybe I've got a lot of free time. On paper, it should be easier for me to give freely of these gifts, because I have the luxury that eluded the widow and her two coins: I can see my ample gift being put into action, when so many can only offer what they have and remind themselves that God sees it and appreciates it.

But here we get into the mess of humanity: if we have a lot of something, it means we have a lot of something we could use any way we want. And then we hear the whisper of the serpent: Think of what this (money, time, talent) could do for you.

May we pray for God to give us the heart of the widow, no matter our resources.

FAITH FORMATION NEWS:

THE ROLE OF RESPONSIBILITY:

Whenever we accept responsibility for the life of another, in some way we become a parent to that person.

Pope Francis talks about St. Joseph as a worker cast in the light of providing for one's family. Here we see the personal dimension of being a parent or guardian. It's not enough just to bring a life into the world. It's what happens after birth, in assuming the responsibility for the upbringing of children, that defines the role.

St. Joseph embraced his fatherhood, in easy times and in rough times. Parenting is often a daunting task, but it is also a beautiful way to show and live God's love for us.

POUNDER: Do I accept my responsibilities with joy?

PRAY: God of wonder and surprise, help me to accept my responsibilities with an eye to the greater good.

FAITH FORMATION CLASSES:

Sunday, October 17, the 5th graders will lead us in Mass at 10:30 a.m. During class time on Sunday, October 31, we will host Trunk or Treat for all the students and younger children. Parents and parishioners are invited to come and join the fun by decorating your trunks and passing out some goodies to the students! See the bulletin board for more information.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS:

CHURCH GROUNDS & CEMETARY

CLEAN UP: Volunteer help is needed on Saturday October 23, from 8:00 a.m. until noon, to help with the Fall 2021 cleanup of the Parish grounds and the cemetery. The rain date is October 30. Bring tools and equipment to help!!

GRAVE DECORATION CLEAN UP:

As a reminder to all who have graves in the cemetery, or know someone who does, please have all flowers, wreaths, or any decorations that are not attached to the headstone, removed by Tuesday, October 19, or sooner, if possible. This helps with the cleaning of the cemetery areas and saving decorations that can be used again next year.

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK:

Presumption can be a great sin. We can easily convince ourselves that as long as we do the bare minimum or master the basics, it is sufficient. Love doesn't operate this way. If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to get expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing and in following a voice other than our own. This is what those who are truly in pursuit of wisdom come to realize. Just like any human relationship worth achieving reveals, we never reach a plateau in following the Gospel or growing in wisdom and holiness. Wisdom is the rudder that guides us through all of life's attractions and options. It alone determines what is worth pursuing and what must be left behind. That is why those who are only concerned about checking the boxes and doing the least amount possible often walk away sad when offered God's gift of life eternal. They are not truly in love.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

October 9-10, 2021

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to be expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing, and in following a voice other than our own. St. Teresa of Calcutta rightly instructs us that for “love to be real, it must cost, it must hurt, it must empty us of self.” Being in love with God requires more than just checking the boxes of the commandments. It requires a sincere and unconditional self-investment. Desiring God with our whole heart, mind, and soul means that I must also desire a relationship with my neighbor with that same degree of fervor.

Biases and prejudices usually occur when people are kept at a distance and treated as objects. We cannot truly know our neighbors, especially if they are different than us, if we keep them in boxes and do not listen to their stories. When we open ourselves to listen to another person’s story, we begin to realize more how similar we are than dissimilar. Being overly attached to our possessions, ideologies, agendas, lifestyles, and personal needs are absolute barriers to achieving the type of personal investment love demands. This is why following Christ can be difficult. It is less a matter of intellect and more a matter of heart and soul. It requires that we transfer our treasure from an investment in tangible secular things and move it into the Kingdom of God. It is only the gift of wisdom and discernment that can help us decide what to do and how to do it.

Contemporaries of Jesus would know that a camel could not enter through the portal of a city weighed down with the baggage it was carrying. In order to enter, the baggage must be removed so that the animal could fit through the entry way. The same is true for us. We carry a lot of excessive baggage around with us that keeps us tethered to our past histories, wounds, myopic world views, prejudices, fears, and suspicions. To invest ourselves in the Kingdom of God, do God’s work and live out our love relationship with God, we need to shed the extra weight. While it may seem that a lot of that stuff is necessary, it really is not. We are much more than the things that we think define us and more secure than we think. The more there is to hold on to and the more that we carry with us, the harder it will be to leave it all behind. Many choose not to and walk away sad because they are not ready to trust. ©LPI
