FOURTH SUNDAY OF

EMBRACE THE CROSS

HOME-BOUND MINISTRY

Our Sheboygan North Catholic Parishes would like to rekindle the Home-bound Communion Ministry to serve those of our parishes who are confined to their homes or in care facilities. Since COVID has taken some of our volunteers, and others may not be ready to venture into others homes or care facilities yet, we will need to begin from scratch.

That said, if you were a Home-bound Minister, and are ready to resume this Ministry, please contact me. If have not been trained, but find that God is calling you to serve our parishioners in this Ministry, also contact me. AND finally, if you know of people who are home-bound and would like a communion visit, please give me their names and addresses.

We will compile all of the names, and try to match Ministers with those who would like to be served. We hope to launch this Ministry again, by mid-May . . . but, we need to have enough volunteers to adequately serve our faith community. Please prayerfully consider this call to serve.

FATHER'S MESSAGE

The prodigal son is one of the more famous stories Jesus speaks about in scripture. While scripture certainly does not address every issue or scenario we go through in our lives, there is certainly enough teachings and verses we hear where we can make a pretty educated guess as to what Jesus would say about any subject imaginable. So why do we struggle so mightily? The short answer is we do not want to think Jesus would speak against what I believe or how I feel. In actuality, the love of God is so contradictory to how we feel sometimes that it does not make human sense. The prodigal son is very much like that. There are so many families that are estranged from each other in many ways. The one boy has done everything right and has respected his parents his whole life.

Then, the wild and disrespectful brother makes a fool of the family, steals its wealth, and disappears. He finally returns and asks forgiveness. He requests no special place again but he gets elevated back to his spot within the family by a forgiving father. Of course the brother who has done nothing wrong is furious. That is the human reaction to this mercy. This parable can work in almost every human relationship we have that has become wounded. The father in the parable is God and it shows divine forgiveness. It is pretty easy to discern then what our response should be to any human relationship we have that has become problematic. Interpretation of scripture is not hard sometimes, it is just hard to do and difficult to want to follow. Happy Lent!

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS

ALONDRA JIMENEZ

Hi, my name is Alondra. I grew up in Sheboygan all my life. I love to spend my time with friends and family. I'm choosing to get confirmed because I want to be closer to God. The best thing I've learned so far in my RCIA class would be that I am not alone on this journey of life. God is with me every step of the way. One of my favorite Saints would have to be Mother Teresa.

COMITÉ DE ADMINISTRACIÓN Y SERVICIO:

27 de marzo de 2022

4to. Domingo de Cuaresma

“Ya no hubo más maná para los Israelitas, que ese año comieron del rendimiento de la tierra de Canaán.” (JOSUE 5:12)

En los cuarenta años que los israelitas viajaron por el desierto, Dios les proporcionó el maná para comer. Tan pronto como fueron capaces de disfrutar de los frutos de la Tierra Prometida dejaron de recibir el maná. De la misma manera, las bendiciones de Dios para nosotros pueden cambiar a través de los años, pero es importante confiar que Dios siempre nos proveerá de todo lo que necesitamos.

“Un buen árbol no da fruto podrido, ni uno podrido árbol dé buen fruto.” LUCAS 6:43

¿Estás usando tus dones de la manera que Dios lo ha destinado? ¿Le has preguntado a Dios cómo le gustaría a Él que los usaras? ¿Te comparas con los demás y te quejas de lo que no tienes en lugar de estar agradecido por lo que si tienes? Dios nos da a cada uno de nosotros dones únicos y un plan único. Escucha cómo Dios te está llamando a usar tus dones, a dar buenos frutos, para gloria de su nombre.
