

ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI CATHOLIC CHURCH

TEUTOPOLIS, IL

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

- Mt 2:10-11

From the Pastor

The parishioners extend our sympathies and condolences to three of our parish families. Mildred “Millie” Nosbisch had her funeral Mass on Wednesday, 23 December, and Roger Esker’s funeral Mass and burial was on Tuesday, 29 December and Connie Rieman’s funeral Mass and burial was on Thursday, December 31. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine on them.

Our Holy Father has announced a “Year of St. Joseph” this year. 150 years ago it was decided that St. Joseph would be the patron of the universal church, so our pope wrote the apostolic letter “Patris Corde.” The year started on 8 December 2020 and will continue until 8 December 2021.

As you know, our parish now has streamed Masses. The address for you to go to is in the bulletin and on the parish website. The parish is grateful to Doug Runde, Gabe Rauch, Jerry Runde, Ron Ruholl and others for their work and tremendous amount of time they spent installing and “tweaking” the equipment to make this happen. If you go to the website, you will also see that you can watch any Mass that we have already celebrated and that has been recorded. If you would like to make a donation to help pay for the equipment, just place the donation in an envelope and mark it “Video Equipment” and drop it in the collection or mail it to the rectory. Since this is new, and we are just getting started, there will be some areas that need improvement. Please be patient as we work out the bugs.

Most of us are glad to see the year 2020 disappear in our rearview mirrors as we continue our journey. We thank the Lord for helping us get through some of the more difficult times this year. It is sad enough to lose a loved one, but then when we have to deal with the coronavirus situation on top of that, life gets complicated. Many in the parish have been afflicted with this illness, and we thank God for getting them through it. Others have suffered being in a quarantine status both for protection from getting the bug as well as to get rid of the bug. Some of our teens will always remember the year because of the athletics situation – some games never even got scheduled. There have been “ripple effects” from the coronavirus in terms of people losing jobs – especially in the restaurant business, economic hardship, anger management, abuse on many levels. I think there is a bright side to our whole experience.

If anyone ever wondered if Catholics would come to Mass if there were no obligation to attend Mass, then they got their answer with this pandemic. Even with live streaming of the Mass, where people can watch Mass in their homes, we are still seeing a good attendance at our Masses – both weekday Masses and especially weekend Masses. This is great to see. And if you have been following the parish tithe or offering in the bulletin, then you have observed that our parishioners are supporting our parish. We see pastoral support in terms of people answering their call to ministry by being an usher, reader at Mass, Eucharistic minister, sacristan and the financial support which pays our bills. Thank you for your support on many levels.

Please remember in your prayers:

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Even the slightest flicker of a light helps to properly orient us when we find ourselves in total darkness. Being in darkness can be unsettling and even a bit unnerving. We lose our focus and struggle to find our bearings and achieve balance. On life’s journey we may think we are walking in the light but are really lingering in darkness. We do not see the full picture, either because we are distracted, disinterested, or even apprehensive. Sometimes, we even choose to close our eyes when the light is readily available to illuminate our path. Do we really desire to know the truth of who we are? In Jesus Christ, a light has been given to those who dwell in darkness. God’s revelation gives us the light to see where we come from, who we are and where we are going. It also tells us that this Good News is not meant for just a privileged few but is intended to go out to all the world. Is this something we want to see?

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading:

In late 6th century BC, the prophet Isaiah proclaimed an unimaginable future of glory for Israel in the wake of their return from seventy years of captivity in Babylon. What message of hope does our nation need today?

Second Reading:

Paul speaks of God's "revelation" to include Gentiles as "coheirs" and "copartners" with Jews in the divine promise fulfilled in Christ Jesus. How welcoming are you to those you consider outsiders?

Gospel:

The magi's visit to discover the "newborn king of the Jews" caused great anxiety for the religious leaders of Jerusalem, including King Herod. Why do you think some people are not open to the good news of Jesus Christ?

CHWC Announcement - Thanks to the Community for again supporting Catholic Heart Workcamp Group through Holiday purchases of Scrip cards and Cardinal calendars! We wish you a joyous Christmas season and a Happy New Year!

ASSISI FOR AFRICA - Thanks to our brother Fr. Gustave, our Franciscan community has opened a new home, Maison Mapendo (Home of Love), with the collaboration of the people of his neighborhood. It is only for girls, especially the most vulnerable. The co-founder is the dynamic Jolie Kiambo Chabu, who unfortunately was hit by a truck and is now in the hospital. There are only a few girls in their new home, but we are sure that it will soon be filled. The existence of these small boys and girls without family is a sad commentary on the poverty and instability of marriage. Let us begin anew, for up till now we have done nothing (St Francis). – Fr. Damien

Wise Men See God in the Simple Things

If you're on social media, you have probably seen a meme going around that features this quote: "God has a plan for your life. The enemy has a plan for your life. Be ready for both. Just be wise enough to know which one to battle and which one to embrace."

There were certainly two competing plans for the Magi: God's and Herod's. And, wise as they supposedly were, it wasn't entirely easy for the Magi to discern which was which.

After all, Herod posed as a friend. He offered the Magi hospitality and kindness. Though the Gospel doesn't say so, he probably flattered them and appealed to every moral weakness he could observe in them. In his palace, they must have felt great physical comfort — rest and tables of plenty on what was an otherwise long and treacherous journey.

But if the Magi were honest with themselves, I'll bet they would have admitted that, regardless of Herod's charm, they felt a gnawing sense of doubt while in his presence. When they looked upon the Christ Child, born in a stable without any of the comforts of the world or protections of wealth, they probably felt the opposite. They probably felt safe.

The Magi were lucky enough to have the right plan spelled out for them in a dream, but for the rest of us, it's enough to remember this: God's plan is often the one that leads us to places of great simplicity, great humility and great love. Let's have the wisdom to view power with suspicion, and innocence with admiration.

Holy Humor - Just a Second

God: Like one second.
Adam: What is a million dollars like to you?
God: Like one penny.
Adam: Can I have a penny?
God: Sure, just a second.

Annual Catholic Services Appeal (ACSA) transitioning to Parish Community Tithe

This year we begin the transition from the ACSA appeal to the Parish Tithe. The funds received through the tithe will be used for the support and services provided by the diocese, in the same way that ACSA funds supported the diocese. This year the change is the calculation used by the diocese. The amount our parish is expected to tithe is 10% of our annual church income. Capital campaign income is not included in the calculation. Our parish tithing goal for this year is $77,199.

Parishioners can donate directly to the Parish Tithe fund in the same manner we have in the past for ACSA. You can send your donation directly to the diocese, or donate through our online system, or you can drop it in the collection box and the parish staff will forward the funds to the diocese. When writing your check make it out to "Diocese Parish Tithe" and write St. Francis Teutopolis in the memo line. The tithing contribution can be in place of your weekly contributions to the parish. The funds that are donated directly to the Parish Tithe are not included in the tithe calculation.

If you have donated to ACSA through the summer and already this fall, these funds will be posted against our tithe goal for this year by the diocese.

If you have any questions, please call Fr. Joe or Anita Broom at 217-857-6404.

The Epiphany of the Lord

Copartners in the Promise. The readings and this solemnity are filled with competing images and persons. Darkness and light. Christians of Jewish heritage and Gentiles. Chosen people and coheirs, copartners. Herod and the Magi. Epiphany teaches us this: all are members of the same body, all are coheirs of God's goodness, all are copartners in the promise of Christ Jesus.

- Like the Magi, how will I give homage to Christ today
- Whom do I look down upon that I must see as a copartner with me?
- What treasure will I give away, will I offer to another?

We received the following thank you from the Divine Word Missionaries for our Mission Coop collection.

We are very grateful for your second collections at Masses. We were able to respond to the anxieties and sorrows that have spread along with this pandemic. Your attention sustains our efforts to build chapels, celebrate the sacraments and spread the Word of God. Your financial and prayerful support make it possible for our priests and brothers to strengthen the kingdom of God globally. May God continue to bless all of you! Let us remember each other often in prayer.

MISSION

Solve a puzzle together with your family. Work together like the wise men did.

Sharing the Gospel

Jigsaw puzzles are fun. Solve a puzzle with your whole family, and it comes together even faster. God helped the wise men solve a puzzle. They wanted to find the newborn king. Together the wise men read God's promises, did their homework, and followed the star. When all of their answers fit, they found baby Jesus.

Prayer

God, thank you for all the people who helped me find Jesus.

Mission for the Week

Solve a puzzle together with your family. Work together like the wise men did.
