GOSPEL MEDITATION - June 27, 2021 Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The author of The Cloud of Unknowing prays, “That which I am and the way that I am, with all my gifts of nature and grace, you have given to me, O Lord, and you are all this. I offer it all to you, principally to praise you and to help my fellow Christians and myself.” Knowing that God sustains us in being is the key to faith. All that we need to do is to love God as God is and the rest will begin to fall into place. God made us in His image and desires that we have life. God also desires that we be healed of all of our wounds, especially those caused by sin, and know his loving touch. Being weighed down by negativity, imperfections, the cares of the world, and weakness is not something that God desires.

Faith can profoundly change how we see God, ourselves, and one another. It gives a clearer lens through which to see life and connects us with the powerful virtues of love and hope. Three friends journeying with us through all that we encounter, faith, hope, and love, help us experience God’s embrace and heal us. All we have to do is let God be who God is and not foolishly try to make Him into what we need or want Him to be. Without God we cease to be. It’s that simple. The very blood that flows through my veins and the life that I have come directly from Divine origins. With this knowledge of who God is and who I am, I can open my ears and hear the powerful words Jesus speaks, “Do not be afraid, just have faith.” Trust begins.

When we are struggling, we naturally reach out for God because we know that a divine remedy is the only remedy. But, in doing so we wrestle with letting God take charge. We want something more miraculous and visible than the obvious and have difficulty in finding consolation simply resting in God’s presence. Our naked being, stripped of any pretense or self-serving agenda, is being called to rest in and love the uncreated Presence of God. Reach out in love to God. Ask God to heal you from all that separates you from Him. Put aside any ideas of God that create barriers between you and God’s tender and endearing presence. The Cloud of Unknowing leaves us with wisdom, “think of yourself and of him in the same way, that is, with the simple awareness that he is as he is and that you are as you are.” This is a meeting of two friends who desire nothing more than to share life together.

The Day of Prayer for Life will be held Wednesday, June 30, at St Francis Church in Teutopolis. Please come and pray for renewed respect for all human life, and in reparation for our nation allowing 62 million preborn human lives to be ended by abortion since 1973.

The Day of Prayer will begin with Mass at 8:00 am followed by Eucharistic Exposition and Prayer by area churches and organizations throughout the day, with Benediction at 7:00 pm, and closing Mass at 7:30 pm. A reception with refreshments will follow in St Clare Hall, adjoining the church.

Our guest celebrant for the 7:30 pm closing Mass will be Father James Flach, retired priest of the diocese of Springfield, IL, and Chaplain and Vice-President of Effingham Area Right to Life.

REMINDER! Saturday, September 18th is picnic day! Mark your calendars! More info will be rolling out as we get closer. Live music, the infamous golf ball drop, kids games, BINGO, and many other favorites return! We're also adding some new items and activities to our picnic lineup! New this year will be a doubles pickle ball tournament (held the morning of September 18th at the Banquet Hall courts! Signups for this will begin in August!) Our previous inside sit-down dinner will also have a new twist and will become an outside "picnic style" sit-down opportunity! This, plus a few other new things TBA! Picnic ground activities will kick off at 2:00. It's going to be great to gather as a parish family once again!

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK -

First Reading:

We learn from the Jewish Wisdom writer that God did not create death; rather, death entered the world because of the envy of the devil. How does this insight shape your understanding of death?

Second Reading:

Paul encourages the wealthier believers in Corinth to share their surplus wealth with those in need in the church in Jerusalem. What do you find interesting in Paul's appeal?

Gospel:

In these two separate miracle stories, Jesus heals Jairus' daughter and the hemorrhaging woman because of their faith in Jesus. How does your faith in Jesus bring about healing in your life?

Called and Sent is a program that offers high school students the opportunity to be formed as the next generation of disciples in the Church. It is being held on July 4-7, at the Villa Maria Retreat Center located at 1903 E. Lake Shore Dr., Springfield, IL. Participants will come to understand who Christ is, and in coming to know Him, they will come to better understand who they are in relationship to Him. This then leads to a greater awareness of how they are called to live their faith intentionally as disciples. Cost of the retreat is $250 for 3 nights accommodations, eight meals, and program material. Register at www.dio.org/vocations/cas. Any questions, email vocations@dio.org.

Clean Linens - Mary Waldhoff

Sharing the Gospel In today's Gospel a little girl was so sick that people thought she was dead. However, Jesus said she was just asleep. He held her hand and said, "Get up, little girl." Every day you work hard doing chores at home and learning at school. If you are tired and do not want to get out of bed, Jesus will hold your hand and say, "Get up and enjoy the day."

Prayer: Lord, help me get out of bed quickly to learn about your world.

The SonRise Friday morning men's prayer group will meet this summer at St. Francis church. We invite you to share Mass at St. Francis at 6:30 am. Afterwards we will gather in St. Clare hall for coffee, some reflection and fellowship (and perhaps a pastry) until 7:30 am.

This band of brothers is open to all men. Whether or not you've been joining us via Zoom this past year, now is a great time to find encouragement and support on your faith journey. If you have a friend, father, brother or son you want to invite, please do!

PUZZLE

Which line will lead Jesus to the sick little girl.

MISSION

Make a Get Well card and give it to someone who is sick.
