From the Pastor

We bring the Eucharist to people in their homes on the First Friday of each month. Why? Why do more people come to Mass on the first Friday? What's special about the first Friday?

In the 17th century, St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, a cloistered nun, received visions in which Christ asked her to foster devotion to the Sacred Heart. One of the devotions received through these visions is the First Friday Devotion. This devotion asks the faithful to receive the Eucharist on the first Friday of the month for nine consecutive months in honor of Jesus' Sacred Heart.

Jesus revealed several promises for those who observed the first Friday devotions, including reception of the sacrament before death, perseverance in the Faith and consolation of Christ's love at one's death.

The first Saturday devotion is another way to devote yourself to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and honor our Holy Mother. This goes back to the promises received at Fatima in 1917.

All devotions should lead us to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. First Friday and Saturday devotions do that.

This Wednesday, 11 August, is the feast day of St. Clare. She is honored with a stained glass window in our church – in the sanctuary. She is holding a monstrance as she did in her chapel just outside the town of Assisi when invaders were threatening to invade her convent. She held the Blessed Sacrament out in front of them and discouraged them from their ill intent. Both her sister and her mother followed her into the convent. She had a very strong character, and she was wealthy in the way of grace. Wore sandals when she wasn't barefoot, and she wouldn't touch a dime. "Frugal" doesn't begin to describe her poverty. She lived what she professed.

Some people have been asking me if I've been in the sun too long – my face is all red. My face and scalp are also covered with bumps. This is all the result of a substance the dermatologist prescribed as a method of therapy for dealing with my skin cancer, basal cell carcinoma. Twice a day I rub this stuff on areas that are prone to get the skin cancer. Dr. Boyajian and I have become good friends from time spent in the operating room in the hospital or the surgery center. He is an excellent surgeon and a wonderful human being. We're going to have to do some more cutting in the near future after we meet in his office. There are three kinds of skin cancer, as I understand it, and basal cell is the least one to worry about, but you still have to deal with it. I would ask for your prayers, but there are so many other people in more need. Let's pray for them.

The Grand Opening of the Sr. Ethelbert Center has been postponed. We already had the Open House, and many have seen what it looks like. We will work with the bishop's schedule and ask him to come and dedicate our building to Sister Ethelbert. And while he is here, he can administer the sacrament of Confirmation. This is the plan that is forming now.

Be thinking PICNIC! It isn't too far away.

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Are we willing to be taught by God? If we are, then we will begin to see things and make judgments using a Divine lens. Often, we perceive things with purely human eyes and reference points. When we do this, reality can lose its Divine spark and we miss what God is trying to say. When using human eyes exclusively, Jesus is at best perceived simply as a prophet who has some wise things to say. The human element has a difficult time seeing Jesus' divinity and recognizing him as the Bread of Life that comes down from heaven. We can easily get stuck on Jesus' human associations and overlook the marvelous wonders God wants us to see. If we really allow ourselves to be taught by God, we will then come to see the truth about Jesus and the abundant everlasting life God offers. Jesus becomes the key that unlocks all of our relationships: with God, others, ourselves, and creation. He, as the true and lasting bread from heaven, shows us the gifts of faith, hope, and love that God bestows on us. Through this divine lens we see that all life sparkles and glows with God's love.

Homebound Ministry We are needing volunteers to visit the homebound on Sunday mornings and bring them Holy Communion. If you can arrange to be a volunteer for this special ministry, please call the parish office at 217-961-6404. Thank you.

A Prayer to Be Open to God's Will

Good and gracious God,
 I know that life can be unpredictable.
 Sometimes I know what is good and right,
 but I don't have the courage to do it.
 Sometimes I am so busy with my own affairs,
 I forget to see the needs of people in front of me.
 Sometimes I am set in my own ways,
 and I resist growing and learning.
 Help me, Lord, to be open to Your will.
 When You prompt me to do the right thing,
 give me the courage to do it.
 When those around me need my help,
 give me Your heart to love them.
 When I'm stuck in my own ways,
 give me the grace to grow closer to You every day.
 Give me the trust and confidence of Mary.
 Let it be done unto me according to Your word!
 Amen.

CCW and Men's Holy Name

WE'VE ONLY HEARD FROM 50% OF YOU:

We greatly appreciate those of you who have paid your dues, but if you have not paid your sodality dues, please do so as soon as you're able. Your parish sodality dues are used to assist with picnic expenses, various program expenses and assistance throughout our parish community.

But, unfortunately we have only had approximately 50% of our parishioners pay their men's and ladies' sodality dues.

If you haven't paid, then please do so immediately by following either method below.

It's very simple to pay, either:

1. Go to www.stfrancischurch.com and click on "Sodality Dues" and follow instructions; OR
2. Mail or drop off your form and check in the weekly collection. (If you've misplaced your form and need a replacement; there are extra forms placed in the entrance of church.)

We appreciate your prompt attention to this, as both sodalities are working hard to finish up the dues collection process before we begin planning future festivities. We would prefer not to have to contact those unpaid or have to go door-to-door, so your prompt attention to this would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you from Your Men's and Ladies' Sodalities

What's Your Hearth Cake?

"Get up and eat, or the journey will be too much for you." I've been to a lot of meetings in my years of work in the Church, and you can take my word for it, the ones with snacks just seem to go better.

I don't know what it is exactly. Maybe it's just that people are in a more agreeable mood if you show up with donuts. Or maybe it's about the very real sense of community and camaraderie that is created at a table where people are engaging in that most human of tasks — eating — beside one another. I think a big part of it comes down to the simple fact that we're all just nicer people when we're fed.

This rings true spiritually, too. We simply must remain fed if we, in turn, are to feed others. Think of a time when you have neglected your relationship with God — when you haven't fed yourself with whatever it is that you need to remain committed to the journey of a Christian life. Is it Mass attendance? Is it prayer or Scripture reading? Is it time with your small group, or conversation with a trusted friend who knows your soul? What sustains your ability to be a good disciple, a good steward? What inspires you to give more freely, to love more abundantly?

Whatever it is, that's your hearth cake. That's your jug of water. Don't neglect it. The Angel of the Lord is nudging you in your sleep: "Get up and eat, or the journey will be too much for you."
