From the Pastor

The parishioners extend our condolences to the family of Leroy Wernsing, who was buried from our parish this Friday. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord.

Please note there will be ONLY ONE Mass each morning this week, from Monday through Thursday. And that Mass will be at 6:30 am. On Friday we will continue with the usual two Masses. The reason for this is Fr. Joe has to attend a Leadership Conference in St. Louis from Monday afternoon until Thursday afternoon.

LIVING ROSARY. The local council of the Knights of Columbus is sponsoring a Living Rosary this Sunday evening, 17 October, at 7:00 near the tower. Please come during this month of the rosary, October, and join the Knights of Council 2874 and the Knights of the 4th degree for the Living Rosary Sunday evening.

Mark your calendar: 2 November at 2:00 pm. We will have a communal anointing service in church. There will NOT be a Mass. This is an anointing service. Tuesday, 2 November, at 2:00 p.m.

St. John Paul II | Feast Day October 22

St. John Paul II was born Karol Wojtyla in the small Polish town of Wadowice. During World War II, when the Nazis invaded Poland, Karol secretly studied for the priesthood in an underground seminary. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1946, appointed Archbishop of Krakow in 1964, and three years later he was made a cardinal. In 1978, he was elected the 264th pope, where he took the name John Paul II.

St. John Paul II made evangelization a key part of his papacy and made pastoral visits to all parts of the world. In 1981, he was shot twice in an assassination attempt. Following Jesus' example of compassion, he later met with his would-be assassin in his prison cell, where he forgave him for what he had done.

St. John Paul II was well-known to be an active sportsman throughout his life, hiking and skiing well into his 60s. In 1992, his health began to decline, and it was later discovered that he suffered from Parkinson's disease, a degenerative disorder of the central nervous system.

Near the end of his papacy, it became difficult for him to speak, and his poor health and physical suffering made public appearances difficult. Still, he continued his pastoral work. He died April 2, 2005, and he was declared blessed on May 1, 2011. He became a saint on April 27, 2014.

PRAYER CAMPAIGN FOR LIFE - EUCHARISTIC DAY OF PRAYER MONDAY, OCTOBER 25TH

Please come to pray to our Eucharistic Lord for the end of the evil disregard for human life in our world and for an end to abortion. Eucharistic Exposition in the chapel will begin at 9:00 am and continue through 6:00 am Tuesday. And THANK YOU to all those who volunteered at the Silk Purse in support of the Family Life Center for the action part of this Campaign for Life!

PRO-LIFE ACTION – Pro-abortion activists and lawmakers in Springfield are making it a top priority to repeal the Illinois Parental Notification of Abortion Act — which requires girls 17 and younger seeking an abortion to notify a parent or get approval from a judge to bypass the requirement.

Contact your state lawmakers and ask them to oppose any and all efforts to repeal or amend the Parental Notification of Abortion Act. This is easily done at ilcatholic.org – click on Take Action, then Current Alerts.

First Reading: Isaiah speaks of our redemption through the suffering of the Lord's servant. When have you experienced God's presence in your suffering?

Second Reading: Hebrews tells us that Jesus is able to sympathize with our weaknesses because he, too, "has been tested in every way." What are some ways that you are tested in life?

Gospel: Jesus uses the request of James and John as a teachable moment for his disciples on the importance of humility and service to others. What other qualities do you think are necessary for true discipleship?

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"What do you wish me to do for you?" Whether we realize it, this is a question God is always asking. It's an important question because the answer we provide will reveal a great deal about where our hearts lie. Our requests of God can often appear very noble and altruistic. They consist of requests for healing, for someone in need of prayers, successful resolution of a personal conflict, assistance in overcoming a disease and a myriad of other desires for both ourselves and others. We are especially concerned about those we love and can easily find ourselves bringing their struggles to God for a hearing in our prayer.

Is that really all that prayer is about? The woman in today's Gospel, having been put in her place by Jesus, was only looking out for the wellbeing of her sons. She was doing what mothers do, protecting and securing the livelihood of her children. But she was sadly mistaken, her request was not granted. We all make this same misguided mistake from time to time. The goal of prayer is not to convince God of the worthiness of our agenda or to gain a hearing. Sometimes we believe that the more we multiply our prayers or discover the right combination of supplications that we will receive more of God's attention. That's not how it works. Even though God desires to hear, know, and be an intimate part of what is on our minds, it goes much deeper.

What we need from God is a relationship. It's a relationship that guides and immerses us in the very stuff of life and in the direction of the Gospel. This relationship sees God's kingdom and agenda, not our own, as what is most important. It builds the strength of character necessary to bring God's Gospel into a world that may not receive it with open arms. It may cause us discomfort and suffering. We are asked to heroically journey with God through suffering, hardship, ridicule, and even death! Ultimately, our desire from God must become our desire for God. It is only when this happens that the powerful words "thy will be done" will be found with sincerity and humility on our lips. Whatever God wishes becomes what we wish as we see this glorious union of wills. Our humble lives will then become powerful witnesses, and what happens to us in God's eternal kingdom the result of his mercy. We become true servants and find ourselves discovering God's definition of success. That definition has nothing at all to do with status, income, or privilege.
