PRIESTHOOD

Prayer for Priests

Lord God, most holy, we approach you in gratitude for your holy ordained priesthood.

You have called these men to be set apart and to shepherd your people, as you shepherd your entire church.

We pray for them in their daily work.

Grant to them an increase in spiritual gifts and grace,
so they may be prepared for the tasks at hand.

Lead them not into temptation and protect them from the grasp of the evil one.

It is through the sacraments they confer that we encounter the divine in a real and profound way.

May your church never lose sight of these,
your special sons, and may we, the body of Christ, never fail to cherish the gift of their lives, which they have freely given to you and your holy church.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, your Son.

Amen.

Sacrament of Matrimony:

Arrangements must be made a minimum of 6 months in advance with the Pastor.

Sacrament of Baptism:

Baptism Prep class is required before baptism. Please call the office to pre-register.

From the Pastor

Happy Halloween! When I was a child, Halloween was right up there close to Christmas! One day out of the year strangers give you candy. Just ring their doorbell, or knock on the door, “trick or treat”; and candy is in the bag! What a deal! My family never got into exotic costumes. Very low key, like a paper bag over the head! We would come home and spill all the candy on the living room floor. When I first reported to St. Isidore’s, I was amazed at how creative the people were with designing and making costumes for their children. They were very clever.

Holy Evening, or Halloween, comes the day before All Saints Day, which is normally a holy day of obligation. This year All Saints Day, November 1st, is not a holy day of obligation. We will have the 6:30 am Mass and an additional Mass at 12:10 pm on Monday, 1 November. Tuesday is the feast of All Souls Day. We will have the usual 6:30 and 8:00 Masses, and in the afternoon we will have a Communal Anointing Service. There will not be a Mass. If it has been a few months since you have been anointed, and your “tires show some wear,” then it is a good idea to receive the sacrament of the sick. Tuesday at 2:00 pm.

The giant oak tree in the cemetery has been removed. It was right behind the altar and statues. Parishioners were rightfully concerned. It just took some time for Ron to line up both cranes, which the job required. We are looking to beautify that area of the cemetery.

The mail this week brought a check for $55,000.00 to use for the new wall on the east side of the property!! This pays the balance on what we owe for the demolition and removal of the old wall and the building of the new one. If you haven’t seen the new wall yet, check it out. The parishioners are grateful to the person responsible for this generous donation.

I want to again thank you for being faithful to your pledges for paying for the Sr. Ethelbert Center. Companies in the business of raising funds for churches will tell you that you rarely get what the people pledge. People lose jobs, or they experience unforeseen health issues, or whatever the reason, and the first thing to go is the pledge to the church. There is always a percentage that “falls off.” Not true here at St. Francis! You have maintained your word in making payments on a regular basis, e.g., monthly, quarterly, etc. Thank you very much.

While I’m at it, thank you to the parishioners, who have been supporting the parish all along, especially through the pandemic. When the church was secured, and the only Mass was on the internet, many people continued to support the parish with an envelope by the rectory’s front door, mailing in their donation, or some other way. Thank you for your stewardship.

One way we could improve the support of the parish is having more people contribute online. We have a minority of people supporting this way. If people want to donate this way, but they feel odd having the usher come by with the basket, and they don’t deposit anything, there are ways to change that. You can deposit directly from your account, and have something to drop in the collection.

All Saints' Day November 1, 2021

Because the Solemnity of All Saints Day falls on a Monday this year, it is not observed as a holy day of obligation this year, though it is still to be celebrated as a solemnity. There will be Mass at 6:30 am and 12:10 pm.

ASSISI FOR AFRICA

- Even since our entry into the new home for the children, we have been very busy. We have to clean the house 2 times a day and the children are doing a fine job. We gave our mama cooks a one month rest and our kids took over.

They are doing marvels in the kitchen and everyone seems happy with the diet: balls of cornmeal, beans of all kinds, fish or chicken.

The next good thing is that some former street children want to be integrated into our home for they are finding that alcohol, marijuana, and drugs do not bring happiness. Our psychologist meets with them regularly and slowly they are entering into the learning of wood work or soldering. But they are frail so we have to be very gentle with them and teach the other kids not to make fun of them.

We welcome to our faith family those who recently received the Sacrament of Baptism.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

“Hear, O Israel! The Lord is our God, the Lord alone!” This ancient prayer has been found on the lips of many of God’s devoted servants throughout history. In its simplicity it reminds us of a timeless truth we often forget. We often worship other gods rather than the One true God and find all of our relationships distorted as a result. This One True and Eternal God who alone has a solitary claim on us and must be loved with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength. It is important that we remind ourselves often of God’s primary place in our lives, lest we get distracted and sidetracked. But there is one more important piece that Jesus insists belongs with this. We must love our neighbor as ourselves. You cannot have one without the other. God’s presence within each one of us requires that all of our relationships work together. This is at the heart of God’s kingdom.

HALLOWEEN!
